Trair asks telcos to use AI to stop spam

The Telecom Regulatory Authority of India has mandated that telcos deploy AI and ML filters within 30 days to block unsolicited calls and messages, commonly referred to as spam.

In an order issued Tuesday, the regulator has said that all telcos have to deploy Artificial Intelligence and Machine Learning based systems capable of constantly evolving to deal with new signatures, new patterns and new techniques used by unregistered telemarketers.

Under this order, telcos will have to share details of spam callers with other carriers using blockchain technology thus creating a common database. The telcos were supposed to have begun deployment of the AI and ML systems from 1 May.

Delhi govt plans to impound bike taxis

New Delhi authorities will start impounding the bike taxis of companies such as Uber and local rival Ola if they do not cease operations in line with a court order backing a ban on them, a senior government official said. The Supreme Court on Monday backed the Delhi government's ban on bike taxis in a setback for the US ride-hailing company Uber which had legally challenged authorities to continue offering the services. The government has argued that bike taxis violate local city laws that require them to have a licence to offer such services.

Electricity grid, rig operators race to minimize cyclone hit

Oil producers including state-run ONGC are also preparing for cyclone landfall

NEW DELHI

A cyclone Biparjoy heads for landfall on the Gujarat coast on 15 June, power grid and oil rig operators in the region are rushing to minimize the impact on their operations.

A top official with a power transmission company, who did not want to be named, said that stakeholders in the power segment are prepared and are following the standard operating procedure for such events as directed by the Central Electricity Authority (CEA) and National Disaster Management Authority (NDMA).

Power transmission companies including state-run Power Grid Corp are in touch with the Union ministry of power over the required preparedness, said people in the know.

Oil producers including state-run ONGC having rigs in the Arabian Sea are also preparing for the landfall of the cyclone. "We are evacuating the non core personnel from the drill ships in Arabia sea," said an ONGC official.

The power ministry in a statement said that Power Grid is closely monitoring the weather conditions and its transmission system regularly, and 24x7 control rooms have been set up at Manesar and Vadodra.

The ministry also said that the National Load Despatch Centre (NLDC) is continuously monitoring the grid supply for variations in load or generation to take timely action to ensure stable operation of the grid and also for alternative supply through other transmission lines in the best possible manner.

The Indian Coast Guard evacuated 50 personnel from an oil rig off Gujarat's coast named 'Key Singapore', which is owned by Dubai-based Shelf Drilling and is working for Cairn Oil & Gas. Acknowledging the rescue efforts, the ministry of petroleum and natural gas tweeted: "Splendid teamwork by @IndiaCoastGuard @DghIndia & @IndianOil in evacuating 50 personnel from Key Singapore, a Vedanta Oil Rig, off Dwarka Coast. More than 12 sorties through #CycloneBiparjoy shows commitment of @DefenceMinIndia safeguarding citizens always #CycloneBiparjoy." The rescue efforts and preparedness gain significance after 86 workers in the Arabian Sea died during Cyclone Tauktae in May 2021, leading to suspension of three officials of ONGC.

The Indian Coast Guard carries out evacuation operation at Okha, off Gujarat coast, as part of preventive measures before the expected landfall of cyclone Biparjoy on Thursday.

Default settlement draws criticism

Two of bank employee unions urged the Reserve Bank of India to review and withdraw its recent decision to allow compromise settlements for wilful defaulters saying that such a move would hurt the integrity of the banking system. Last week, the central bank released a framework for lenders governing technical write-offs and compromise settlements, including those classified as fraud or wilful defaulters. Compromise settlement refers to an arrangement with the borrower to fully settle the lender's claim upfront, which may or may not include a complete recovery of dues.

A wilful defaulter is a borrower who has defaulted in meeting payment or repayment obligations to the lender despite having the capacity to do so.

Govt calls Dorsey's claims 'baseless'

Twitter co-founder Jack Dorsey has made allegations that the government threatened to shut down Twitter unless it complied with orders to restrict accounts during farmers' protests. However, the government has denied these allegations, dismissing them as an "outright lie."

Refuting the allegations, minister of state for electronics and information technology Rajeev Chandrasekhar said that Dorsey's Twitter regime "had a problem accepting the sovereignty of Indian law...It behaved as if the laws of India did not apply to it."
