Modi raises Agusta charge sheet that named AP, FAM

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
Dehradun, 5 April

Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Friday referred to the Enforcement Directorate's charge sheet on the AgustaWestland helicopter scam and claimed that alleged middleman Christian Michel had pointed at the involvement of the first family of the Congress.

Alleging that the Congress and corruption were "inseparable partners", Modi said Michel had disclosed two names to his interrogators. "One was 'AP' and the other was 'Fam'.

'AP' stands for Ahmed Patel and 'FAM' stands for family. Have you heard of Ahmed Patel? Which family is he close to?" Modi asked the crowd at a rally in Dehradun.

When he heard the crowd's response, Modi said: "You understood automatically. The family cannot tolerate the stern attitude of the chowkidar (watchman)." The ED had filed a supplementary charge sheet against Michel in a Delhi court on Thursday, saying that the alleged middleman had identified the initials "AP" as Ahmed Patel, the senior Congress leader considered close to the Gandhi family. Michel, however, filed an application on Friday claiming that he had not named anybody in connection with the deal.

He also claimed a journalist was pushed around when he tried to ask Congress President Rahul Gandhi questions on the charge sheet.

Jaitley also attacks Rahul

BJP leader Arun Jaitley on Friday questioned Gandhi's "silence" on the charge sheet, saying right to silence belongs to an accused but not to a prime ministerial aspirant.

Addressing a press conference, Jaitley said the Congress should answer as to who were referred to as "RG", "AP" and "FAM" and added that Swiss police had also seized papers carrying similar initials in its

Cheap poll stunt: Congress slams ED

The Congress said on Friday that the ED's supplementary charge sheet was a "cheap election stunt" to divert the people's attention from the "imminent defeat" of the Narendra Modi dispensation in the Lok Sabha election.

Congress chief spokesperson Randeep Surjewala said a "panic-stricken" Modi government is using "rehashed insinuations" through its "puppet" ED, which it dubbed as "Election Dhokasla" (sham) for "manufacturing lies". "All these rehashed insinuations and lies were bundled out earlier too through a set of pliable media." PTI raids in connection with the case in 2013.

Meanwhile, Christian Michel told a Delhi court on Friday that he has not named anybody in connection with the deal during investigation by the ED.

Michel, who alleged that the central government was using agencies for political agenda, filed an application after the reports appeared that ED in its charge sheet has named politicians of the previous UPA regime.

NaMo TV is an ad platform by DTH service providers: I&B

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, 5 April

The Information and Broadcasting (I&B) Ministry is learnt to have responded to an Election Commission (EC) notice on NaMo TV on Friday, saying it is an advertisement platform launched by DTH service providers which does not require government nod.

The ministry also said that NaMo TV is not a regular channel and it does not figure in the official list of approved channels, a source said.

The ministry told the poll panel that according to the norms, no approval is required to run such advertising platforms, the source said.

On Tuesday, the EC had issued a notice seeking a report from the ministry on NaMo TV, launched just weeks ahead of the general election, after Opposition parties, including the Congress, asked the poll body to direct the ministry to suspend the channel as it was violative of the model code of conduct.

The EC will take a call on whether it violated the model code after going through the documents the ministry filed.

Won't increase tax to fund NYAY: Rahul

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
Pune, 5 April

Congress President Rahul Gandhi on Friday said his party's manifesto was an expression of the people of India and ruled out burdening the middle class to fund the anti-poverty scheme Nyuntam Aay Yojana (NYAY).

The opposition party has said that if voted to power, it will give ₹72,000 per year as minimum income to poor families, benefiting around 25 crore people, a move Gandhi has termed a 'surgical strike' on poverty.

Interacting with students in Pune, Gandhi said the manifesto has been prepared after consultations with all stakeholders. "The middle class will not be taxed and income tax will not be increased to implement the Nyay scheme where ₹72,000 will be deposited in bank accounts of poor people every year if the party is voted to power," he said.

The Nyay minimum income guarantee scheme is estimated to cost ₹3.26 lakh crore to the national exchequer. The BJP, which has criticised the scheme, has sought to know how it will be funded. Senior Congress leader and former Union minister P Chidambaram has also said the middle class won't bear the burden for implementation of the Nyay scheme.

"I have already said in press conference and various interviews: there will be no increase in the tax burden of the middle

Congress chief says he loves Modi, berates him for 'insulting' Advani

Congress President Rahul Gandhi on Friday said his love for Prime Minister Narendra Modi begets anger from the latter, and berated him for 'humiliating' BJP veteran L K Advani.

Addressing a poll rally at Chandrapur, Gandhi said, "BJP talks of Hinduism. In Hinduism, guru is supreme. It talks of guru-shishya tradition. Who is Modi's guru? Advani. Joota maar ke stage se utara (Advani was kicked out from stage)." Gandhi said Modi had humiliated Advani, and added that disrespecting one's guru is not Hindu culture. His swipe at Modi over the treatment meted out to Advani follows the BJP patriarch's blog published on Thursday. PTI

Priyanka: PM unable to list even one achievement of his 5-year rule

Congress leader Priyanka Gandhi Vadra on Friday hit out at Prime Minister Narendra Modi, saying he should tell the country what he did in the last five years instead of seeking an account of the work done by former prime ministers Jawaharlal Nehru and Indira Gandhi. Priyanka, who was speaking after holding a road show in support of party candidate Dolly Sharma, alleged the prime minister was serving lies to the masses and is unable to list a single achievement of his five-year tenure. Says NITI Aayog's Kumar violated poll code with comments on NYAY; lets off Uttar Pradesh CM over 'Modiji ki sena' remark, asks him to be careful in future

BS REPORTER & PTI
New Delhi, 5 April

The Election Commission (EC) said on Friday that NITI Aayog Vice-Chairman Rajiv Kumar violated the model code of conduct when he made comments against the Congress' proposed NYAY scheme.

However, the EC expressed "displeasure" over his remarks and did not take any further action.

In a communication sent to Kumar, the EC asked him to be cautious in future while making statements.

"The Commission has come to the conclusion that your above-mentioned comments violate the said MCC norms. The Commission has therefore, decided to convey its displeasure to you and expects that you shall exercise caution in future," the EC said in the letter sent to Kumar.

On March 27, the poll panel had sought Kumar's response on his remarks in which he had attacked the Congress over its minimum income guarantee promise. The EC had felt that since Kumar is learnt to have told the Election Commission that he spoke against Congress's Nyuntam Aay Yojna (NYAY) scheme as an economist and not as part of the policy body.

The EC is also learnt to have let off Uttar Pradesh Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath with a light rap for his "Modiji ki sena" remark, asking him to be more careful in the future.

Not satisfied with the remarks, the EC is learnt to have told him that he "more careful in his utterances in future", sources said.

Amit Shah: BJP brought peace to Northeast

BJP President Amit Shah on Friday said the Modi regime has ensured peace and development in the Northeast, which was roiled by militant activities just five years ago.

The BJP is committed to take action against cross-border terrorism and to root out insurgency in the northeast, he said in Changlang, insisting that political stability returned to Arunachal after the party came to power.

Modi had instructed his ministers to visit the northeast states every fortnight and resolve the problems of the people in the region, Shah said.

"Five years ago, the northeast was disturbed, there was hardly any development. The BJP has brought peace to the region and paved way for its development," he claimed.

"All parts of the northeast now have air and rail connectivity. In Arunachal alone, the govt has sanctioned ₹50,000 crore for the development of roads," Shah stated. PTI

Won't contest polls: Sumitra Mahajan

SANDEEP KUMAR
Bhopal, 5 April

Lok Sabha Speaker Sumitra Mahajan on Friday announced she would not contest the Lok Sabha election starting next week.

The eight-time Member of Parliament from Indore spoke out against the Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) in a letter.

Mahajan, known as "Tai" to the people of Indore, wrote, "The BJP has not declared its candidate for the Indore seat till now. Why is this situation of uncertainty? The party may be hesitant to take a decision. I had, however, spoken to seniors in the party in this context quite early on and left the decision on them. It seems they still have some hesitancy regarding the candidate for the seat. This is the reason I'm making this declaration now that I will not contest the Lok Sabha polls. I leave the party free to make a decision on the seat." She also thanked the people of Indore for supporting her.

Mahajan is the latest to join the list of BJP leaders over 75 years of age who have been asked not to contest elections. L K Advani, Kalraj Mishra, Murli Manohar Joshi and Shanta Kumar are among others. Joshi had also written an open letter to the Kanpur voters, saying he had been asked not to contest the election.

Political analyst Girija Shankar terms the letter a "revolt". "Angst is a small word. The language of the letter indicates that Mahajan is certainly not happy with the party leadership." He also said Mahajan's move will not affect the chances of the BJP in the saffron bastion as any individual cannot survive without the umbrella of the party.

BJP spokesperson Rajnish Agarwal said, "She is a senior leader. She had to make an announcement regarding her plans and she chose to write a letter. We respect this. The party is completely fine with it." PTI

SC no to granting interim stay on electoral bonds

The Supreme Court on Friday refused to grant interim stay on the electoral bonds scheme of the Centre on funding to political parties and asked the petitioner NGO to file an appropriate application. The Centre told the court the scheme was launched to prevent black money flow into political funding. A bench of CJI Ranjan Gogoi and Justices Deepak Gupta and Sanjiv Khanna said the issue requires a detailed hearing and, therefore, it will take up the plea on April 10.

Citizenship Bill, NRC lollipops, says Mamata

The National Register of Citizens (NRC) and the Citizenship Bill are "two lollipops" being doled out by PM Narendra Modi to "fool" the people of Assam, West Bengal CM Mamata Banerjee said on Friday. The NRC had left out the names of 4 million people and it was only the Trinamool Congress that stood beside these people irrespective of their religion, Banerjee said while addressing an election rally in Assam.
