DMart: Earning less for more

Competition from peers pushing DMart to keep product prices down, take a hit on margins

VIVEAT SUSAN PINTO Mumbai, 18 May

Supermarts, operator of the DMart chain of stores in India, saw its margins contract for the third straight quarter when it reported its March Quarter (Q4) results last week.

This came even as revenue and profit growth surged 32 per cent and 21 per cent yearon-year, respectively.

At 7.5 per cent, earnings before interest, tax, depreciation and amortisation (Ebitda) margins in Q4 were the lowest in three quarters, pointing to pricing pressure that the retailer is seeing.

"Competitive intensity from organised retailers as well as e-commerce players has only grown in the last few quarters. This is weighing down on both gross and Ebitda margins," Latika Chopra, analyst at JPMorgan, said in a report this week.

While gross margin is a company's net sales minus cost of goods sold, Ebitda margin is an assessment of a firm's operating profitability.

Both are calculated as a percentage of sales. In Q4, DMart's gross margin shrank 50 basis points to 14.4 per cent from a year earlier, and Ebitda margins contracted by 20 basis points over the year-ago peri-

In the last three quarters, DMart's gross margins have hovered largely in the 14 per cent region, lower than the 15-16 per cent range seen earlier.

Ebitda margins have fallen from 8 per cent and 8.3 per cent in the September and December quarters, respectively, to 7.5 per cent (in Q4).

Net profit margin dropped 60-70 bps sequentially to touch 4 per cent in Q4. On a YoY basis, the contraction in net profit margin was 40 bps. the firm said when announcing its results.

The sharp fall in net profit margin, said experts, is not only due to pricing pressure, the company added 12 stores to take its total base of outlets (figures in %) Analysts at Motilal Oswal say that DMart's everyday low pricing (EDLP) model is being replicated aggressively by most players (online as well offline retailers), compelling the firm to keep prices down significantly. A recent survey by analysts at Edelweiss had found that DMart continued to offer the lowest price in most food and grocery categories, implying it wasn's prepared to cede ground to players such as Reliance Smart and Big Basket. 'On an aggregate basis, a typical consumer basket at but also limited room to make DMart comes at a 10 per cent productivity gains. In O4, for discount to the most expeninstance, DMart's total expensive seller," Edelweiss said in a diture increased 28 per cent recent report. "Moreover, among the 27 items (surveyed), over the year-ago period, led we found that offline businessby a nearly 19 per cent increase in employee costs and 31 per es like DMart sell products cent hike in other expenditure. cheaper compared to online Experts say these cost presplatforms such as Big Basket sures could surge as the comand Amazon Pantry. Nearly 52 pany expands its base of stores per cent of the 27 items are cheapest at DMart, followed by even as a larger network of out-15 per cent at Reliance Smart," lets will help improve its topline and bottomline. In Q4, the brokerage said.

Baring Asia acquires 30% stake in NIIT

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA New Delhi, 18 May

Baring Private Equity Asia (BPEA) has acquired 30.50 per cent stake in mid-sized software services firm NIIT Technologies for about ₹2,627 crore, according to a regulatory filing.

Last month, funds affiliated to BPEA had signed definitive agreements to purchase 30.5 per cent stake in NIIT Technologies from NIIT and other promoter entities, at ₹1,394 per share.

In a filing to the BSE on Saturday, NIIT Technologies said Hulst B.V. acquired 18.8 million equity shares of the company with face value of ₹10 each, on May 17.

The Netherlands-registered Hulst is indirectly owned by funds affiliated to BPEA. Following the stake transfer, Chairman Rajendra Singh Pawar, Chairman and Managing Director Arvind Thakur, and Non-Executive Director Vijay Kumar Thadani, have all resigned from their positions as directors with immediate effect, it added.
