Two woman cops on indefinite fast

AHMEDABAD: After the state government said that police remuneration has been getting remission according to the Seventh Pay Commission recommendations, cops from across the state have decided to take their agitation to the next level. Minister of state for home Harsh Sanghavi met representatives of the

Defamation case: Rahul Gandhi to appear in Surat court

Ahmedabad : Congress leader Rahul Gandhi is likely to record his statement in the court of chief judicial magistrate at Surat District and Sessions Court on October 29. Statements of two more witnesses were recorded in the defamation case against him. Gandhi had last appeared in court in June and denied making any defamatory comments against Modi surname. "Rahul Gandhi is likely to remain present in the court to record his statement after the court examined two more witnesses," said Kirit Panwala, Gandhi's lawyer. Earlier, complainant in the defamation case, Surat West BJP MLA and currently state cabinet minister Purnesh Modi, had requested the local court to record statements of two additional witnesses, which the court rejected. Later, Modi approached the High Court which directed the local court to reconsider its order. "Later an officer and a video grapher's statements were recorded by the court. They were part of the surveillance team of Election Commission," said Panwala.

The case of April 2019 was filed under Indian Penal Code sections 499 and 500 after Gandhi had made a comment on the community in a political rally at Kolar in Karnataka on April 13, 2019 in the run up to general elections.

We feel privileged to work with the companies that share our persistence for quality and excellence. (19-10)

Londyard Pizza celebrated its first anniversary

Ahmedabad, When the pizza was first invented it was considered art to make because they were all made entirely by hand. They did not have the help of machines or automatic baking devices, from start to finish they were hand-made. Londyard Pizza has 80 outlets in Gujarat. It's Artisan Pizza. The term "artisan" is generally used to define someone who has extensive knowledge and training of a certain craft. When the word is applied to food, it means it is prepared using traditional methods instead of machines and with the highest-quality ingredients. Speaking about the first anniversary, Anand

Hina Thakkar, founder of Londyard Pizza, said "We have received a very good response from the Gujarat market in this one year which motivates us to do better. The brand believes in not just selling food but giving a wholesome experience for the customers taking care of the ambiance, customer service, food quality, pricing, and hygiene all at once." Talking about the expansion plan of the company he shared that "Company has strategically planned the expansion for the coming 5 years and has planned to open 250 - 300 stores Pan India. Also Company has plans to Expand Globally by March 2022. (13-9)
