The orders in T&D have enhanced our order book, especially the second order from PGCIL in quick succession has strengthened our domestic T&D business. We are particularly enthused by the order in Railways, which consolidates our leadership in the conventional Railway segment. The industrial order in Civil along with the orders announced earlier during the year, reflect an uptick in the private capex specifically in the metals & mining sector. The prestigious order in the Oil & Gas Pipeline business reaffirms our confidence that this business will become a significant part of KEC’s overall business portfolio in the coming years.”*
