Sharada temple in PoK: Kashmiri Pandits demand pilgrimage, regular prayers

The Save Sharada Committee in Kashmir has demanded that the Sharada temple in Pakistan-occupied-Kashmir (PoK) be opened for Kashmiri Pandits and Hindus from the rest of India for pilgrimage on the lines of the Kartarpur corridor for Sikh The committee has also demanded that the prayers commence in the temple "as has happened in the religious places in conflict zones around the world." Ever the Kartarpur since Gurudwara was reopened after 72 years, the Indian and Pakistan governments, which sat across the table. formed a draft and that was signed. We say if Kartarpur has been re-opened, why not Sharada. I myself travelled to Kartarpur, why am I not allowed to travel to Sharada Peeth? Ravinder Pandita, the founder of the Save Sharada Committee, told reporters here. Pandita, along with plaining, he said there is a mechanism, which is called the Line of Control permit between government of India and the government of Pakistan on how to travel across and how to go to the Under the LoC permit, here to check the progress of the construction of a new Sharada base camp temple at Teetwal near the Line of Control. The temple is being sculpted here using granite rock on Magadi Road in Bengaluru, which would be transported to the border vilthe GoI and GoP have agreed that if someone has a relative across the LOC or those people have their relatives here in Indian side of KashmirtheycantravelonanLOC permit. It is not a visa but an instrument like the Kartarpur permit, Pandita said. He claimed that he had applied 20 times for a permit but was denied everytime because there is a clause that the person should have to have a relative on the other
