UP govt seeks response on 7 cases against BJP MLA Som

AMIL BHATNAGAR
NOIDA, AUGUST 13

THE UTTAR Pradesh government has sought the Muzaffarnagar administration's response on seven cases pending against BJP MLA Sangeet Som, a move that comes "usually" before withdrawing cases, according to a senior district official.

These include two cases related to 2013 Muzaffarnagar riots, which had left 62 people dead and more than 60,000 displaced.

A letter has been sent to the Muzaffarnagar administration seeking a response on status quo of the cases filed against Som, the legislator from Meerut's

Sangeet Som

Sardhana constituency. Muzaffarnagar Sub-Divisional Magistrate Amit Kumar Singh said, "We have received letters from the government regarding certain cases. One of the cases goes back to 2009, and one is from 2013. A response has been sought on 13 points, which is usually done in matters of withdrawal of cases."

He said the government has sought information on court proceedings and witnesses, among other aspects of the case. "The administration and the police will prepare and furnish the report," he said.

Sources said one case relates to circulation of a fake video during the riots, and another involves alleged violation of prohibitory orders on public gatherings.

TN to crack down on schools making students wear caste wristbands

Chennai: The Tamil Nadu School Education Department has asked its officers to identify and crack down on schools where children were allegedly being made to wear coloured wristbands to identify their caste.

The Director of School Education has directed officials to identify schools in their districts where such discrimination is practised and initiate severe action.

"...in some schools in TN, students were made to wear colour-coded wrist bands. These (bands) which come in shades of red, yellow, green and saffron indicate whether they belong to a 'lower' or 'upper' caste," a circular issued by Director of School Education S Kannappan said. The officer said such practices were supposedly being used for sports team selection, reassembling during class and lunch intervals.

"Allegedly, these practices are enforced by students themselves and supported by influential caste persons and teachers," the circular read. PTI

Jharkhand man kills family, commits suicide

ABHISHEK ANGAD
JAMSHEDPUR, AUGUST 13

A 30-YEAR-OLD farmer allegedly murdered his wife and two daughters and then committed suicide in Jharkhand's Garhwa district on Monday.

Police said Shiv Kumar Baitha hung himself from a tree in the village. The bodies of his wife Babita Devi and two daughters aged 6 and 10 were found in a well nearby. Garhwa SP Shivani Tewari said, "The bodies of the wife and the children were found drowned inside the well. One of daughters had injury marks on her neck. We have waiting for post mortem to give us the report. Prima facie the farmer murdered his wife."

The SP said that the reason for the suicide is not clear.

"Family members told us that the farmer remained unwell and had been under treatment...He had also developed insomnia and had not slept for the last month. It seems that it was an act committed out of depression," she said. Panchayat Satyanarayan Baitha mukhiya said Shivkumar was under stress as he had taken loans from a few people. "He had also taken loans up to Rs 3 lakh. He was constantly stressed about the repayment," he said.

At relief camp in Belagavi college, race against time to vacate campus

JOHNSON TA
GOKAK (BELAGAVI, KARNATAKA), AUGUST 13

THEIR HOMES reduced to a rubble by the swollen Malaprabha river on the night of August 5, most of the 2,160 displaced people living at the relief camp in Government Junior College, in Belagavi district's Gokak town, are racing against time.

For them, there is little to cheer even as floodwater is receding over the lost two days across Belagavi. With Independence Day around the corner, the college officials have received instructions to ask all people at the relief camp to leave by 4 pm Wednesday (August 14). Officials also want the college to resume from August 16. College principal Arjun Hadimani said: "We have not had classes for 10 days now (due to the flood). Students are suffering. We have done our best (to provided relief); we need to take back the college (now)."

"We have used our midday meal supplies to cook meals (for camp inmates). Now we need to return to providing education," a senior college official said. Motilal, 56, whose one-room house has collapsed, said, "We don't know where we will go if the college sends us out tomorrow. We have to rebuild it first before we can return."

According to those at the camp, at least 500 people do not have a house to return to, and the others are concerned about returning to weak structures, where mud and slush have played havoc with the interiors and electrical items.

People line up to collect supplies from a truck at a relief camp at the Government Junior College in Gokak in Karnataka's Belagavi district. Express Nagesh Lakshman, 19, a class XII dropout who works at a Big Bazaar outlet in Gokak town, said: "We spent the whole day today cleaning the house. It smells like a drain. We have to return there on Wednesday because the authorities want everyone out of the college to prepare for Independence Day."

Besides shelter, people at the relief camp are provided three meals and medical treatment, if necessary, by government doctors. "There will be no food, no money when we return home with our children. I do not know how we are going to survive," Ningavva, a young mother of two, said.

Watching women line up behind charity trucks laden with food and clothes from a vantage point on the first floor of the college, Deepak Manohar Gowdanawar, 29, a disabled person, was anxious how to get life back on track and recoup the losses of a life-time of savings — Rs 9 lakh invested in a puffed rice-making unit. Gowdanawar and his brother set up the unit with their father's savings and some loans.

"We bought a machine for heating and making the puffed rice, a generator for power backup. It was doing very well — we were supplying to many people. Everything is gone now. The machines were in water for six days," he said.

The BJP government of Chief Minister BS Yediyurappa has announced relief measures such as Rs 5,000 monthly compensation for people displaced by floods to live in rented homes for a while, and Rs 10,000 for repair of damaged homes. But there is confusion over how to access the money, and when it will be disbursed.

"We do not know about Rs 5,000 being given to stay temporarily in rented homes. We heard the government will give around Rs 3,500," Nagesh Lakshman, a young man at the camp, said. "Anyways, where are the homes to rent?"

As of Tuesday, 13 of 48 people who have died in the flood in Karnataka are from Belagavi, the district worst affected — 4 lakh people out of 6.77 lakh who have been evacuated across the state come from this region, Gokak and Athani taluks being the worst hit. As many as 460 of 1,224 relief camps in Karnataka are in Belagavi; 1.7 lakh people from the region are in relief camps as of August 13 out of 3.9 lakh across the state.

Gokak Assembly constituency was represented by Ramesh Jharkiholi, among the Congress MLAs who quit and joined the BJP and were subsequently disqualified.

Maharashtra flood toll rises to 43, govt pegs losses at Rs 6,814 crore

SANDEEP ASHAR
MUMBAI, AUGUST 13

Damage caused by torrential rain and flood left a trail of destruction in Maharashtra, which the state government on Tuesday pegged at Rs 6,813.93 crore in a preliminary assessment, even as the toll from flood-related incidents rose to 43.

Farm area of 4.06 lakh hectare under kharif cultivation has been ravaged, inflicting losses on over 8.7 lakh farmers. Not going by the Centre's financial assistance norm s calculated at Rs 6,800 per hectare for rain-fed crops, the state government will pay compensation valued at Rs 50,000 per hectare. Similarly, Rs 75,000 per hectare was considered for irrigated areas, though the Centre's relief norms approve of only Rs 18,000 per hectare.

Chief Minister Devendra Fadnis said that "a memorandum of assistance" will be sent to the Centre, but added that till help is received, the amount will be spent from the state exchequer.

As per initial assessment, the flood has damaged 1.39 lakh houses. The government will pay Rs 16,602 and Rs 5,200 for pucca structures fully and partially destroyed, respectively. Those who have lost huts will receive Rs 4,100. With over 400 km of roads damaged, the state has estimated repairs to cost Rs 876 crore.

Protest about pay, not about food, faith: Zomato founder

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
KOLKATA, AUGUST 13

ZOMATO FOUNDER Deepinder Goyal, in an internal mail to employees, has said that the protest by a "handful" of food delivery executives in West Bengal's Howrah has nothing to do with "food or religion or beliefs", but is about the recent "rate card correction". Since August 5, a section of Zomato delivery executives is on strike over the alleged cut in payment rate. On Sunday, their protest grabbed national headlines after the protesting staff alleged the company was forcing them to deliver food items containing beef or pork, which was against their religious beliefs.

"This 'protest', confined to a handful of delivery partners, is limited to the Howrah area. The issue was primarily related to a recent rate card correction in that area, something we routinely do," Goyal wrote.

In his letter, accessed by The Indian Express, Goyal added, "Occasionally, a handful of delivery riders don't understand the rate card corrections and start protesting against the change. In this case in Howrah, instead of constructive engagement with their local Zomato execs (executives), these riders approached a local politician and deliberately framed the issue incorrectly."

"We know this because we took a look in our order database and there were zero orders from local homes for any item containing pork in the last three months in that entire area. There was one order of a food item containing beef but the customer cancelled that order... There is never a moment when anyone outside of the restaurant kitchen is actually coming in contact with any food. So this alleged protest has nothing to do with food or religion or beliefs," read the letter.

Meanwhile, the delivery executives continued their strike on Tuesday after a meeting with the officials of the company failed to resolve the deadlock.

"Last night, we got a call from the company that a meeting has been organised for Tuesday. A five-member delegation of ours went to attend the meet. Senior police officers were also present. We told the company representative about our payment issue and our unwillingness to deliver pork and beef to customers. He said he can't recommend changes as it is done by senior company officials. One of the senior officials will meet us on August 16," Mohsin Akhtar, one of the protesting executives, told The Indian Express on Tuesday.

However, Zomato didn't issue any communication or comment about the meeting.

તે દરેક તેના ખુદના સ્થળે બરાબર છે. આઈનોક્સ લેઈઝરે એવો મુદ્દા પર ધ્યાન કેન્દ્રિત કર્યું હતું કે ભારતમાં નિર્માતાઓ, વિતરકો અને મલ્ટિપ્લેક્સના માલિકો એક ચલચિત્રની થિએટરમાં રિલીઝ અને અન્ય કોઈ પ્લેટફોર્મ પરની રિલીઝ વચ્ચે આઠ સપ્તાહની એકમાત્ર થિએટરની વિન્ડો પર પરસ્પર સહમત છે. ભારતમાં આશરે ૬૦૦ સ્ક્રીન્સનું સંચાલન કરનારા આઈનોક્સ લેઈઝરે જણાવ્યું હતું કે આ ક્ષેત્રના તમામ વિભાગોની મજબૂત આર્થિક યોગ્યતાની ખાતરી માટે એકમાત્ર થિએટર વિન્ડો એક એવું મોડલ છે કે જેનું અનુસરણ આંતરરાષ્ટ્રીય ધોરણે થતું આવ્યું છે.
