New Delhi: The Centre rushed to the Delhi high court on Tuesday urging it that its order for no coercive action aga-

Services Not Operational Even After 90 Days, SC Told

New Delhi: Notifications and orders shutting down mobile, landline and inter-net services in Jammu & Kashmir following the abrogation of provisions of Article 370 were "illegal and unconstitutional", the Supreme Court was told on Tuesday. A bench headed by Justice N V Ramana was told that even after 90 days, communication services — data, internet, pre-paid mobiles and SMS — were not operational in the Kashmir Valley, affecting the working of the media. Advocate Vrinda Grover, appearing for Executive Editor of Kashmir Times Anuradha Bhasin who has challenged the restrictions imposed in the Val-ley, said the state has the power to put reasonable restrictions on the rights conferred under Article 19 (protection of (protection of certain rights regarding freedom of speech) but it cannot ex-

"There is absolute com-munications shutdown from August 4. It requires to be tested by this court. Yes, there can be reasonab le restrictions on rights under Article 19 but the same cannot extinguish the right itself," she told the bench, also comprising Justices R Subhash Reddy and BR Gavai.

Grover argued that orders issued by the authorities were with regard to reduction of speed of 3G and 4G data but the internet service was totally shut down. "This order is illegal and unconstitutional," she said while referring to one of the orders issued by the Inspector General of Police (IGP) of Kashmir zone. "There is complete nonapplication of mind while issuing these orders. The-se are bald orders," she said. Sheargued that the J&K administration has said in its affidavit that for national security and to prevent loss of life, certain measures were taken. Grover said authorities have claimed that internet services could be misused by "anti national ele-ments" but their own data shows that incident of terrorist violence has gone down. "Is their any proximate nexus between inter-ce?," she said, adding that, "90 days are over now. The word 'temporary' will lose its meaning if the restrictions still continue"

Referring to the provisions of the Temporary Suspension of Telecom Services (Public Emergency or Public Safety) Rules. 2017 and Indian Telegraph Act, she said that restrictions could be imposed on-ly for temporary period and it cannot be enforced for longer time. She said the media has got protection under the Constitution and freedom of press can be curbed only through a reasoned and specific order.

"So, according to you, general order of prohibi-tion does not apply in your case unless special orders with reasons are passed?," the bench asked. Responding to the query, the lawy er while referring to the rules said, "Yes. There has to be order with specific reasons with regard to press". Grover also said that if the authorities had apprehension about misuse of internet services. then why the landline pho-ne services were shut down. PTI
