MONTHLY SALARY HIKE OF OVER ₹28,000, OTHER PERKS Hyundai, Chennai plant workers sign wage pact

SAJAN C KUMAR
Chennai, June 30

SOUTH KOREAN CAR major Hyundai has signed a long-term wage pact with the union of the Chennai factory workers, who will see a monthly salary hike of over ₹28,000, among other perks. In a statement, Hyundai Motor India (HMI) said its recognised union — United Union of Hyundai Employees (UUHE) — have cordially signed the long-term wage pact with mutual-trust being the key pillar of this agreement.

The long-term wage settlement will be retrospective starting from April 1, 2021, and will remain effective till March 31, 2024. The revised, all-inclusive package will see a salary increase of ₹28,200 per month (in the ratio of 5.5%, 2.5% and 20% for a period of three years), among other benefits.

Sources told FE that around 2,239 technicians working at Hyundai's Chennai factory will benefit from this wage settlement. Hyundai has its only Indian factory located in Chennai and has two plants inside the premise, and has an installed production capacity of 7.5 lakh units per annum.

The factory currently operates in three shifts, Monday to Saturday for six days and Sunday is kept for maintenance purpose. HMI has around 5,200 employees across the country and the non-technicians have an annual appraisal cycle for salary increase. For technicians, the normal wage settlement cycle is three years and the last deal was done in 2019.

HMI had registered a cumulative sale of 6,35,413 units in CY 2021, achieving a growth of 21.6% over CY 2020. The company had also registered a strong export performance of 1,30,380 units in CY 2021 with a growth of 31.8% o-y. Hyundai in India currently has 10 car models across segments Grand i10 Nios, i20, i20

Bosch India betting big on hydrogen tech, electrification in auto segment

SAJAN C KUMAR
Bengaluru, June 30

AUTO COMPONENTS MAJOR Bosch India, part of Germany's Bosch, a leading supplier of technology and services in the areas of mobility solutions, industrial technology and consumer goods, is betting big on electrification and hydrogen technology in the automotive segment.

Though hydrogen is relatively new in India for the company, Bosch said there have been off late several actions happening with several OEMs. As part of the electrification push, the company will be at looking at localisation of the EV-related products. It is also entering into production of new braking system for hybrid and electric vehicles.

The company globally has been investing in electrification, hydrogen and other advanced automotive technologies over the last ten years. It has been investing around 500 million euros year on year in developing electric forms and components and systems, which has yielded good results for the company.

Soumitra Bhattacharya, MD, Bosch, and president Bosch Group India, told a

Prime Minister Narendra Modi virtually addresses Bosch officials at the inauguration of the firm's first Smart campus, the largest in the world, outside Germany, in Bengaluru

select group of media persons that in order to stay relevant in the mobility space, the company is focusing on what the parent company is good at: To give innovated and affordable Indian solutions under PACE — personalised, automated, connected and electrified theme.

He said that the company has been working with Indian government for the last 15 years on the theme of reducing road accidents. Bosch has globally committed to help reducing the road deaths by half by 2025. "Our new braking system for hybrid and electric vehicles is one such example towards this commitment," he said.

Bosch, which is a market leader in power tools, will be soon getting into connected power tools as well. Bosch in India has 15 group companies, 18 manufacturing units and is present in 76 locations, in eight different states in the form of sales offices and warehouses. Outside of Germany, the company has the largest engineering and R&D centre in India.

"Last year, we had a turnover of ₹22,000 crore despite the Covid impact, and we want to see improvement on that front this year," he said. The company will be hiring around 5,500 to 6,000 people across all its group companies in India this year.

Bosch on Thursday inaugurated its first smart campus in Bengaluru, the largest in the world, outside Germany. The new facility is located in Adugodi, Bosch's India headquarters. The company has invested over ₹800 crore towards its development. The new smart campus will accommodate over 10,000 employees and the 76-acre campus will focus on sustainability, security and user experience.

Bhattacharya said: "Bosch has been part of the transformation in India for the last 100 years, and during this era we have revolutionised the mobility and the 'beyond mobility' ecosystem. With our new campus, the company continues to invest in smart and sustainable solutions that are 'Invented for life' and supports the government's vision for an Atmanirbhar Bharat." The company has invested ₹50 crore (6 million euros) in the reduction of energy consumption at new Adugodi campus over the long term. The campus will meet up to 85% of its total energy needs with in-house solar panels and the purchase of green group captive power.

NOTICE
TRANSFER OF THE EQUITY SHARES TO INVESTOR EDUCATION AND PROTECTION FUND

This Notice is hereby given to the Shareholders of the Company pursuant to Rule 6 of Investor Education and Protection Fund Authority (Accounting, Audit, Transfer and Refund) Amendment Rules, 2017 ("IEPF Rules") which are effective 28th February, 2017.

In terms of the provisions of Section 124(6) of the Companies Act, 2013 read with the IEPF Rules, the shares in respect of which dividend has not been paid or claimed for seven (7) consecutive years or more are liable to be transferred by the Company to the Investor Education and Protection Fund ("IEPF"). The Final Dividend declared for the Financial Year 2014-15, which remained unclaimed for a period of seven years will be credited to the IEPF at appropriate date. The corresponding shares on which dividends were unclaimed for seven consecutive years will also be transferred as per the procedure set out in the Rules.

The Company has already sent a communication to the concerned Shareholders at their registered address, inter-alia, providing the details of their unclaimed dividend for seven (7) consecutive years and giving them an opportunity to claim the said unclaimed dividend latest by Monday, October 10, 2022 to avoid transfer of their shares to the Demat Account of IEPF Authority.

In terms of Rule 6 of the IEPF Rules, a statement containing details of the name(s) of the Shareholder(s) and their Folio Number/ DP ID-Client ID whose shares are liable to be transferred to the Demat Account of IEPF Authority is available on our website www.adf-foods.com for information and necessary action by the Shareholder(s).

In case no valid claim in respect of such equity shares is received from the Shareholders by Monday, October 10, 2022, the said equity shares shall be transferred to the Demat Account of IEPF Authority as per the procedure stipulated under the IEPF Rules. In this connection, please note that:

- For Shares held in physical form:* New Share Certificate(s) will be issued and transferred subsequently to the Demat Account of the IEPF Authority without any further notice. Further, upon issue of such new Share Certificate(s), the original Share Certificate(s) which are registered in your name will stand automatically cancelled and deemed to be bad delivery.
- For Shares held in electronic form:* The shares will be directly transferred to the Demat Account of the IEPF Authority with the help of Depository Participant(s) without any further notice.

It may be noted that no claim shall lie against the Company in respect of unclaimed dividend and shares transferred to IEPF pursuant to the IEPF Rules. Upon transfer to the Demat Account of the IEPF Authority, the Shareholders can claim the equity shares along with the dividend(s) from the IEPF Authority by making an online application in the prescribed Form IEPF-5 and sending the physical copy of the requisite documents enumerated in the Form IEPF-5 to the Nodal Officer of the Company.

In case of any queries/clarifications, the concerned Shareholders may contact the Company's Registrar and Transfer Agents - M/s.
