JOINING THE GROWING list of chief ministers who have opposed a pan-India National Register of Citizens (NRC), Andhra Pradesh chief minister Y S Jagan Mohan Reddy on Monday said it would not be implemented in the state.

His statement came a day after Prime Minister Narendra Modi sought to allay concerns amid continuing protests across the country against the new citizenship law. Contradicting his ministers and party leaders, Modi said on Sunday that his government had not held any discussions on a pan-India NRC yet.

Speaking at a function to lay the foundation for Kadapa Steel Plant at Sunnapuralla Palli, Jagan said: "My minority brothers are asking me to make a statement on NRC. I am making it clear that we will oppose the NRC in our state. We will not support it... Deputy chief minister Azmath Basha has already stated earlier that any move that is against the interests of Muslims will not be supported. We will stand by the minorities."
