Rishi Sunak embraces divisive politics in UK

Climate policy is one of several fronts where Britain's beleaguered Conservative government is drawing sharp lines on emotive issues

LONDON : (AGENCY)

When Greenpeace activists draped Prime Minister Rishi Sunak's baronial country house in black fabric last month to protest his energy policies, public reaction focused on the troubling lapse in security. But on another level, the stunt showed that Sunak's brand of hard-edge politics was hitting home in Britain.

Greenpeace said it was outraged by the government's decision to issue new licenses for oil exploration in the North Sea — part of a retreat on climate policy that is edging Britain away from its ambitious commitments to phase out fossil fuels. Sunak, who was out of the country at the time, won sympathy from many who said the tactics of the activists had got out of control. Climate policy is one of several fronts where Britain's beleaguered Conservative government is drawing sharp lines on emotive issues, hoping to set itself apart from the Opposition Labour Party, which, after years of Tory scandals and economic setbacks, has built a double-digit lead in polls and now increasingly behaves like a government in waiting. Over a politically fractious summer, the Tory government has gone after London's Labour mayor, Sadiq Khan, for his expansion of a low-emission zone for vehicles. It herded asylum-seekers onto a barge docked on the southwest coast of England. And it has showcased itself as the party of law and order, with Sunak frowning at a fearsome-looking knife used in a street crime during a visit to a London police station. "It's part of their strategy to provoke outrage," said Tom Burke, a one-time government adviser who is the chairman of E3G, an environmental think tank. "You provoke outrage to reassure your base. It's exactly the strategy Trump is pursuing in the US." "You're also," he said, "setting a trap for Labour". In the case of climate policy, Burke said the Opposition party had walked into the trap. A messy internal squabble over the low-emission zone broke out between Khan and the Labour leader, Keir Starmer after Labour lost a byelection — a special election for a vacant parliamentary seat — in the London suburb of Uxbridge in July. The Conservatives turned the mayor's plan into a weapon against Labour, pointing out that it would penalise owners of older, more polluting vehicles. Emboldened by the Uxbridge victory, the Conservatives set out to paint Labour as the enemy of car owners. Sunak ordered a review of what he called "anti-motorist" policies across Britain; an out-of-touch Labour Party.

India calls UN experts' comments on violence-hit Manipur 'unwarranted and presumptive'

GENEVA : (AGENCY)

India has strongly rejected comments by UN experts on Manipur, terming them "unwarranted, presumptive and misleading" and asserting that situation in the Northeast state is peaceful.

In the note verbale issued on Monday to the Special Procedures Branch of the Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights, the Indian mission underscored that the situation in Manipur was peaceful and stable and the Indian government was committed to taking requisite steps to maintain peace and stability. "The Government is also committed to protecting the human rights of the people of India, including the people of Manipur," it said. "The Permanent Mission of India completely rejects the news release as it is not only unwarranted, presumptive and misleading but also betrays a complete lack of understanding on the situation in Manipur and the steps taken by Government of India to address it," said the Permanent Mission of India to the United Nations

Office and other International Organizations in Geneva. India's response came after a group of UN experts raised alarm about reports of "serious human rights violations and abuses" in Manipur, including alleged acts of sexual violence, extrajudicial killings, home destruction, forced displacement, torture and ill-treatment.

Rejecting the news release by the Special Procedure Mandate Holders (SPMH) titled 'India: UN experts alarmed by continuing abuses in Manipur', the Permanent Mission of India expressed disappointment and surprise that the SPMHs chose to issue the press release without waiting for the 60 days period for the Indian government to respond to a joint communication issued on the same topic on August 29, 2023.

The Indian mission expressed hope that in the future, the SPMH would be "more objective" in their assessment, based on the facts. It hoped that the SPMH would "refrain from commenting on the developments, which have no relevance to the mandate given to them by the Council and abide by the established procedure for issuing news releases and wait for inputs sought from the Government of India before doing so." The Indian mission reiterated.

Ukrainian defence minister Oleksii Reznikov resigns after Zelensky removes him from post

KYIV : (AGENCY)

Ukrainian defence minister Oleksii Reznikov submitted his resignation on Monday in the biggest shake-up of the defence establishment in 18 months of war with Russia. Reznikov has been at the forefront of Kyiv's lobbying for western weapons to fight Russia's invasion, but his departure after months of corruption allegations against his ministry is not expected to have a big impact on military operations.

President Volodymyr Zelensky said on Sunday he was sacking Reznikov and proposed Rustem Umerov, a Crimean Tatar and ex-lawmaker who runs the State Property Fund, to replace him. Reznikov, who took office in 2021, has helped Kyiv secure billions of dollars worth of western military aid since Russia's invasion in February 2022.

Ukraine has received weapons including German battle tanks, US HIMARS rocket launchers and British Storm Shadow cruise missiles to push back Russian forces, and is poised to receive US F-16 fighter jets soon.

"Reznikov did an amazing job building up a relationship with other ministers and other ministries," Andriy Zagorodnyuk, defence minister from 2019-20, told Reuters. "It saved the country because he was the owner of the process of arranging the shipments of weapons and so on." A three-month-old counteroffensive against Russian forces in the south and east has been criticised by some western officials for making slow progress, but Reznikov was not seen as involved in day-to-day military operations. Reznikov, a 57-year-old former lawyer, was not implicated personally by corruption allegations levelled by Ukrainian media at the defence ministry, most notably over procurement. But the accusations prompted calls for him to be fired, and Reznikov portrayed himself as the victim of a smear campaign.

Zelensky said he has a zero-tolerance line on corruption as Kyiv tries to advance its bid to join the EU and show it is enforcing on the rule of law.

Joe Biden takes shot at Donald Trump on jobs in battleground Pennsylvania

Economic issues are likely to play a critical role in the 2024 presidential race, a likely rematch between Biden and Trump

WASHINGTON : (AGENCY)

US President Joe Biden took shots at his likely 2024 rival, former President Donald Trump, on Monday in a Labour Day speech aimed at shoring up support in a state he needs to win next year to retain the White House.

A self-described champion of labour unions, Biden addressed union workers in Philadelphia as he sought to explain his economic policies to a public worried about the economy, despite easing inflation and low unemployment levels. "It wasn't that long ago we were losing jobs in this country," Biden said ahead of a parade marking the US Labour Day holiday. "In fact, the guy who held this job before me was just one of two presidents in history who left office with fewer jobs in America than when he got elected."

Economic issues are likely to play a critical role in the 2024 presidential race, a likely rematch between Biden and Trump. A Reuters/Ipsos poll last month showed that the economy, unemployment and jobs remained Americans' top concern. A full 60 per cent of Americans, including one in three Democrats, said they disapproved of Biden's handling of inflation, according to the poll. Republicans say that Democratic policies helped spark the rise in prices, making Americans pay more for rent, groceries and petrol under Biden's watch. The Fed has raised rates by 5.25 percentage points since March 2022 and the 30-year mortgage rate now stands above 7 per cent.

Biden played up his record of job creation during his administration and took a dig at Trump, saying jobs were being shipped to China under the Republican President and Trump's presidency saw jobs shrink in America. Some of the workers shouted "Four more years" as the President came to the stage.

Chinese gatecrashers at US bases raise espionage concerns : WSJ

NEW YORK : (AGENCY)

Chinese nationals, sometimes posing as tourists, have accessed military bases and sensitive sites in the US as many as 100 times in recent years, the Wall Street Journal reported on Sunday, citing US officials who described the incidents as potential espionage threats.

The defence department, FBI and other agencies held a review last year to try to limit these incidents that involved gatecrashers because of their attempts to get into US military bases without proper authorisation, the WSJ report said. The gatecrashers ranged from Chinese nationals found crossing into a US missile range in New Mexico to scuba divers swimming in murky waters near a US government rocket launch site in Florida, according to the report. The incidents that occurred in rural areas where there is little tourism typically involved Chinese nationals who were pressed into service and required to report back to the Chinese government, the report added, citing officials familiar with the practice. The US department of defence and the department of homeland security.

Stretch of highway in California named after slain Indian-origin police officer

WASHINGTON : (AGENCY)

To honour a fallen national hero, a stretch of a highway in the US state of California has been named after 33-year-old Indian-origin police officer Ronil Singh who was shot and killed by an illegal immigrant in 2018. The stretch of Highway 33 in Newman was dedicated on Saturday to Singh from the Newman Police Department, the Modesto Bee newspaper reported. Signage proclaiming the "Corporal Ronil Singh Memorial Highway" stands at Highway 33 and Stuh Road, a native of Fiji joined the force in July 2011. A suspected drunk driver fatally shot him on December 26, 2018. A three-day manhunt led to his killer, Paulo Virgen Mendoza, being apprehended at a relative's house in Kern County. He pleaded guilty in November 2020 to Singh's murder and was sentenced to life in prison without the possibility of parole. A ceremony to unveil the sign was held following the community's Tunnel to Towers 5K walk and run. Singh's wife, Anamika, their son, Arnav, who was just 5 months old when his father was killed and other family members were at the event. They were joined by his Newman Police Department colleagues and officials including county Supervisor Chance Condit, state Senator Marie Alvarado-Gil, US Representative John Duarte and Assemblyman Juan Alanis. Messages written on the back of the sign included "Love you Papa," "Today the community came together to honour the memory of Cpl Ronil Singh, who was tragically killed in the line of duty in December 2018. The memorial highway sign was unveiled today and will be displayed on Highway 33 and Stuh Road," Alanis posted on X. "I was honoured to pay my respects to my former law enforcement colleague, and may his memory live on forever," he said. The California Department of Transportation also posted on X, "Today, #Caltrans joined the community members, friends and family of Cpl Ronil Singh to dedicate a highway memorial in his name on State Route 33 through the @cityof Newman. In September 2019, the Assembly Transportation Committee passed a resolution for the Corporal Ronil Singh Memorial Highway.

ऐसे में आने वाले समय में बिजली चोरी भी और बढ़ेगी। पावरकॉम की ओर से पिछले कुछ महीनों के दौरान 40 मीटर रीडरों के खिलाफ कार्रवाई की गई है। इन पर आरोप थे कि खपतकारों के साथ मिलीभगत करके इन रीडरों में मीटरों के साथ छेड़छाड़ करते हुए इनकी रीडिंग पीछे की। पावरकॉम की इन्फोर्मेट टीमों के और से की चेकिंग के दौरान इन मीटर रीडरों की यह चोरी पकड़ी गई।

चंडीगढ़ (एजेंसी)

'इंडिया' को रूप में राष्ट्रीय स्तर पर 26 राजनीतिक दलों के गठबंधन में कांग्रेस और आम आदमी पार्टी (आप) के साथ आने से, पंजाब की स्थिति में मंची हलचल पर पंजाब आप ने विराम लगा दिया है।

हालांकि आप के सैन्यर नेता और पंजाब के वित्त मंत्री हरपाल सिंह चीमा ने सकेतिक शब्दों में साफ कर दिया कि कांग्रेस को लेकर आप में मतभेद नहीं है। उन्होंने कहा कि परस्पर मनमुटाब दूर करके ही 'इंडिया' गठबंधन हुआ है। छोटे-मोटे मनमुटाब और मतभेद दूर करके बने इस गठबंधन का उद्देश्य भी बहुत बड़ा है। पंजाब में आगामी लोकसभा चुनाव कांग्रेस और आप के मिलकर लड़ने के बारे में पूछे गए सवाल पर वित्त मंत्री चीमा ने खेमाकार को कहा कि प्रमुख विपक्षी दलों का 'इंडिया' गठबंधन हो चुका है और लोकसभा चुनाव में सभी दल एक-साथ मिलकर और पूरी मजबूती से चुनाव मैदान में उतरेगी। दोनों दलों के बीच अभी से शुरू हो चुकी है। पंजाब में कांग्रेस के आप को लेकर तलख तवेरों और अपने हाईकमान से बार-बार गठजोड़ न करने की मांग का जिक्र करने पर चीमा ने कहा कि 'इंडिया' गठबंधन राष्ट्रीय स्तर पर एक बड़े मकसद से किया गया है।
