DEEPLY SHOCKING, SAYS INDIA

Eight ex-Navy personnel get death penalty in Qatar

SHUBHAJIT ROY
New Delhi, October 26

INA SETBACK to India's efforts at securing their release, eight former personnel of the Indian Navy, arrested in an alleged case of espionage, were handed the death sentence by a court in Qatar Thursday.

Calling the ruling "deeply shocking", India said it is exploring all "legal options".

The Indian nationals, all employees of Doha-based Dahra Global, were taken into custody in August 2022.

THE CASE SO FAR

- Oct 1, 2022: India's ambassador in Doha, deputy head of mission meet the eight men
- Oct 3, 2022: First consular access granted
- March 25, 2023: Charges filed against veterans
- May 30, 2023: Dhara Global closes Doha operations; those working there return home
- Oct 26, 2023: All eight personnel handed death sentence by a local court

The charges against the Indian nationals were not made public by Qatari authorities. But sources said the Indians had been working in their private capacity with Dahra Global to oversee the induction of Italian small stealth submarines U212.

The arrested Indian were identified as Captain Navtej Singh Gill, Captain Birendra Kumar Verma, Captain Saurabh Vasisht, Commander Amit Nagpal, Commander Purnendu Tiwari, Commander Sanjivakar Pakala, Commander Sujaneev Gupta and Sailor Ragesh—all ex-Indian Navy, employed by Dahra Global.

In its reaction to the order Thursday, the Ministry of External Affairs said it is attaching "high importance" to this case and is exploring all legal options.

"We have initial information that the Court of First Instance of Qatar has today passed a judgment in the case involving eight Indian employees of Al Dahra company," it said.

"We are deeply shocked by the verdict of death penalty and are awaiting the detailed judgment. We are in touch with the family members and the legal team, and we are exploring all legal options," it said.

The MEA said it will continue to extend all consular and legal assistance to the Indians.

"We attach high importance to this case, and have been following it closely. We will continue to extend all consular and legal assistance. We will also take up the verdict with Qatari authorities," it said in a statement.

"Due to the confidential nature of proceedings of this case, it would not be appropriate to make any further comment at this juncture," it said.

The Opposition Congress urged the government to secure the release of the eight men at the earliest. Jairam Ramesh, Congress MP and General Secretary in-charge of communications, in a post on X, said, "The Indian National Congress has noted with the greatest anguish, distress and shock the most disturbing developments in Qatar regarding 8 former officers of the Indian Navy. It hopes and expects that the Govt of India will use its diplomatic and political leverage with the Qatar government to the maximum to ensure that the officers have full recourse to appeals and also do the utmost to get them released at the earliest."

The case in Qatar tests India's ties with the tiny but powerful Gulf state with whom it has tried to build friendly ties. Prime Minister Narendra Modi visited Qatar in June 2016. Earlier, in March 2015, the Emir of Qatar, Sheikh Tamim bin Hamad Al Thani, paid a State Visit to India.

Considering Qatar's heft in international diplomacy—from hosting the Taliban's global mission in Doha to its current role in securing the release of US hostages from the captivity of Hamas—Delhi will be working the levers with the Qatari establishment.

Following their arrest last year, the former Navy personnel got some relief from Qatari authorities when they were moved out of solitary confinement and put in a double-bed occupancy in a jail ward along with their colleagues. The Qatari authorities, sources said, never gave an explanation for the exact reasons for their arrest.

Charges were also framed against two Qatari nationals, one of whom is Khamisal-Ajmi, CEO of Dahra Global. Al-Ajmi was kept in solitary confinement for a period of two months starting in October 2022 until he was granted bail.

An Omani national, who had also been detained, was released just before the beginning of the FIFA Football World Cup.

Deepak Mittal, former Indian Ambassador to Doha, met the detainees thrice during their detention by the authorities.

Sources said the MEA had been closely monitoring the situation and had extended every possible support.

"The case is in what is called 'The Court of First Instance'. Four hearings have taken place. The families have also filed a Mercy Plea to the Emir of Qatar who is known to pardon during Ramadan and Eid," the sources said.

Sources said the matter has been taken up by the Indian government at various official and political levels.

MODI TAKES A DIG AT PAWAR IN MAHARASHTRA

Prime Minister Narendra Modi with Maharashtra governor Ramesh Bais, chief minister Eknath Shinde, deputy chief minister Devendra Fadnis and others at the inauguration of the left bank canal network of Nilwande Dam in Ahmednagar, Maharashtra, on Thursday. At a farmers' rally in Shirdi, Modi said some people from Maharashtra only did politics in the name of farmers who had to earlier depend on middlemen to get money from sale of their produce, comments aimed at Nationalist Congress Party founder Sharad Pawar, who handled the agriculture portfolio during the UPA government.

CASH-FOR-QUERY ALLEGATION
Ethics panel calls TMC's Mahua Moitra on Oct 31

LIZ MATHEW & VIKAS PATHAK
New Delhi, October 26

THE LOK SABHA Ethics Committee, which began examining Thursday the cash-for-query allegations against TMC MP Mahua Moitra, asked her to depose before the panel on October 31.

During its meeting which lasted more than two hours, the committee heard BJP MP Nishikant Dubey who had complained against Moitra and lawyer Jai Anant Dehadrai.

Committee chairman and BJP MP Vinod Sonkar later told reporters that Moitra had been asked to appear before the panel on October 31. He said the committee also decided to write to the ministries of information technology and home affairs to share with it all communication and conversations between Moitra, industrialist Darshan Hiranandani and Dehadrai.

This decision was taken by the committee after hearing the oral evidence offered by Dehadrai and Dubey Thursday afternoon.

Earlier, Dubey had written two letters—one to Lok Sabha Speaker Om Birla, claiming there were allegations that Moitra took bribes to protect the interest of the Hiranandani Group; and the other to IT Minister Ashwini Vaishnaw, urging him to investigate the IP addresses of Moitra's log-in credentials for Lok Sabha to check if they had been accessed by someone else.

On October 19, Darshan Hiranandani, CEO of the Hiranandani Group, in an affidavit to the Ethics Committee, claimed that Moitra provided him her Parliament login and password so that he could "post the questions" directly "on her behalf when required".

Moitra called the letter "a joke" and said, "The draft of this letter was sent by the PMO and he (Darshan) was forced to sign it".

In a three-page affidavit submitted to the committee and released to the press by the Hiranandani Group's corporate communication team, Darshan Hiranandani, who lives in Dubai, said Moitra "thought that the only way to attack Sh. Modi (Prime Minister Narendra Modi) is by attacking Sh. Gautam Adani and his group as both were contemporaries, and they belong to the same state of Gujarat." Dubey also lodged a complaint against Moitra with the Lokpal.

On Thursday, one of the panel members was said to have asked Dehadrai—the TMC MP had called him "a jilted ex" in a social media post—about his connection with Moitra. He did not elaborate on their past relationship and stuck to the affidavit he had submitted. He was also asked about the legal battle over the custody of a pet dog.

Dehadrai later told reporters, "Whatever I was asked, I have told the truth before the committee. No, there was no dispute. All members of the committee inquired cordially. I answered all that I was asked."

ED raids Rajasthan Cong chief, summons Gehlot's son

HAMZA KHAN
Jaipur, October 26

THE ENFORCEMENT DIRECTORATE on Thursday conducted raids on locations linked to Rajasthan Congress president Govind Singh Dotsara and Independent MLA Om Prakash Hudla.

Rajasthan chief minister Ashok Gehlot, in a social media post, said the agency had also issued summons to his son Vaibhav. Gehlot pointed out that the ED's actions came just a day after his government had announced guarantees for women. Vaibhav has been summoned for questioning in a FEMA case in Delhi.

The Congress put up a united front, with Gehlot, state in-charge Sukhjinder Singh Randhawa and others holding a press conference in Jaipur, while Sachin Pilot addressed one in Delhi. "The way agencies have been let loose in Rajasthan before polls to intimidate Congress leaders—the country and the state are watching," Pilot said.
