As the cylinder exploded, it triggered a minor fire in which members of the Kanade family and some of their neighbours, including an 11-year-old boy, suffered burns, the official said.

Among the other victims, four who suffered minor injuries were discharged from the hospital after being provided necessary treatment, they said.

Srinagar Mobile internet services have been suspended in Kashmir to prevent rumours about the health of separatist leader Syed Ali Shah Geelani, officials said on Thursday.

Four prisoners die in 72 hours in 2 UP jails

Bareilly Four prisoners, serving sentences for separate cases, died in two Bareilly jails within 72 hours. The jail authorities said that the deaths were due to 'age-related ailments'.

The bodies of the prisoners were handed over to the families after the post-mortem.

One of the prisoners, Ramchandra, 74, from Pilibhit, had killed five people in 2001 and was serving a sentence at the Central jail.

On February 8, he collapsed and was rushed to the district hospital, where he died during treatment. According to doctors, Ramchandra died due to ischemic heart disease (IHD) with senile degenerative changes," added the jailer.

Similarly, on February 8, 58-year-old Ram Avtar, who was serving a life term in a murder case, collapsed at the district jail and was immediately shifted to the district hospital, where he died during treatment.

Another prisoner at the district hospital, Hardwari, 87, who was also serving life imprisonment died due to hyper-tension.

The fourth prisoner at the district jail, Rajnish, 35, complained of chest pain and died shortly after. District Magistrate Nitish Kumar and Senior Superintendent of Police (SSP) Shailesh Kumar Pandey rushed to the central and district jails to take stock of the situation and to ensure that inmates are getting all facilities they are entitled to under the jail manuals.

Tribute ceremony for victims of 2010 German bakery bomb blast in Pune

Mumbai As Thursday marks the 10 years of 2010 German bakery bomb blast, in which 17 people were killed and at least 60 injured in Pune, tributes poured in for the victims and the families. Almost got married' after college, says Ratan Tata

NEW DELHI: Tata Sons chairman emeritus Ratan Tata has divulged details about his personal life and stated that he "fell in love and almost got married" after college. Speaking to 'Humans of Bombay' on Facebook, the Tata Trusts chairman recalled some of his life's moments and credited his grandmother for teaching him to retain dignity at all costs.

"I had a happy childhood, but as my brother and I got older, we faced a fair bit of ragging and personal discomfort because of our parent's divorce, which in those days wasn't as common as it is today," the top industrialist said in the first of apparently a three-part series. His parents, Naval Tata and Sooni, got separated when he was young and was raised by his grandmother, Navajbai.

The 82-year-old business magnate also talked about the differences he had with his father. "I wanted to learn to play the violin, my father insisted on the piano. I wanted to go to college in the US, he insisted on the UK. I wanted to be an architect, he insisted on me becoming an engineer. If it weren't for my grandmother, I wouldn't have ended up at Cornell University in the US," he said. Tata mentioned that he switched majors and graduated with a degree in architecture. "My father was quite upset and there was a fair bit of rancour, but I was finally my own, independent person in college, and it was my grandmother who taught me that courage to speak up can also be soft and dignified," he added.

On his love life, the businessman said that "it was in LA (Los Angeles) that" he "fell in love and almost got married". "But at the same time I had made the decision to move back at least temporarily since I had been away from my grandmother who wasn't keeping too well for almost 7 years.
