ONE NATION, ONE POLL AND AMBEDKAR ISSUES CREATED RUCKUS
Chaotic winter session ends
amid brawls and protests

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, December 20

PARLIAMENT WAS ADJOURNED sine die on Friday, capping off a tumultuous session that saw a robust debate on the country's constitutional journey and the introduction of two landmark bills on simultaneous elections before plunging to a new low of political animosity over alleged insult of B.R. Ambedkar.

As Parliament met on the last day of Winter Session, the overhang of mutual bitterness involving the ruling National Democratic Alliance and opposition parties following Thursday's spat persisted, forcing Speaker Om Birla in Lok Sabha to adjourn the House within three minutes without even the customary summing up of the Session's highlights.

It was only a little better in Rajya Sabha as opposition parties, which have been protesting against home minister Amit Shah's alleged insulting comments for Ambedkar, agreed to let chairman Jagdeep Dhankhar call upon parties to raise above political differences and restore the sanctity of parliamentary discourse, striking a note of balance amid opposition's charge that he has often been partisan.

He said the House functioned for just 43 hours and 27 minutes with a productivity of merely 40.03 percent during the Winter Session that began on November 25.

ED books KTR in Formula-E case

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
Hyderabad, December 20

THE ENFORCEMENT DIRECTORATE on Friday filed a money laundering case against BRS leader K.T. Rama Rao and some others in a case linked to alleged payment irregularities during the Formula-E race held in Hyderabad in February 2023, official sources said.

An Enforcement Case Information Report (ECIR) has been registered under various sections of the Prevention of Money Laundering Act (PMLA) lacking cognisance of a Telangana Police Anti-corruption bureau FIR filed on Thursday, the sources said. The accused in the ED case are the same as those mentioned in the ACB FIR, they said.

BRS leader K.T. Rama Rao, the son of former chief minister of the state K. Chandrababhan Naidu, has been named as accused No. 1 followed by senior IAS officer Arvind Kumar and retired bureaucrat B.N. Reddy as accused No. 2 and 3. The case pertains to alleged payments of about ₹55 crore, some of it in foreign currency without approvals, to conduct a Formula-E race in Hyderabad dur-

Rama Rao, also known as KTR, had denied wrongdoing, saying "Where is corruption in this? We have paid ₹55 crore. They (Formula-E) acknowledged the payment." He added that this was a 'straightforward' account. "The HMIA (Hyderabad Metropolitan Development Authority) has been formed in the Indian Overseas Bank and money has been transferred from that account," KTR had said re-

Five-time Haryana CM
Chautala dies at 89

VARINDER BHATIA
Chandigarh, December 20

RSS chief Mohan Bhagwat

INDIAN NATIONAL LOK Dal (I.N.D.) supremo and five-time Haryana chief minister Om Prakash Chautala, patriarch of one of the most influential political families of the state, died of cardiac arrest at his Gurugram residence on Friday. He was 89.

One of the most dominant figures of Haryana politics for over five decades, Chautala was born to former deputy prime minister Devi Lal and Harkit Devi. He grew up observing his father, a two-time chief minister who was associated with former chieftains through his life. Chautala took charge as the CM for the first time on December 2, 1989 after Devi Lal vacated the post to become the Deputy PM in the Janata Dal government headed by V.P. Singh.

As he was not an MLA then, Chautala contested a bypoll from the Meham seat. Voting was held on February 27, 1990, but due to allegations of booth capturing, repolling was ordered by the Election Commission on eight polling booths.

A few days before the repolling, Amr Singh, an independent candidate from Meham, was elected. This was followed by a major controversy, and an election was held in Parliament, necessitating the resignation of Chautala as CM. He was succeeded by Banarsi Das Gupta. Amidst all this, Chautala contested another bypoll from Darba Kalan and won. Gupta was promptly removed as CM, barely 31 days after he took charge. Chautala then took over as CM for the second time. With the heat rising on Chautala over the Meham episode, the then Prime Minister V.P. Singh was said to have conveyed that it would be best for Chautala to step down. Chautala had to quit in just five days of assuming office. The Janata Dal then named Master Hukam Singh as his successor.

On November 7, 1990 when V.P. Singh's government fell and Chandra Shekhar took over as the Prime Minister, Devi Lal was again appointed as the deputy prime minister. Four months later, in March 1991, Hukam Singh resigned — believed to be on Devi Lal's insistence — and Chautala was back as the CM. But this manoeuvre prompted a defection within his party. A number of his MLAs quit and the Chautala government fell within a fortnight. At Chautala's last support of his MLAs, President's Rule was imposed in Haryana between April and June 1991. In the elections that followed, the Congress won, leading to Bhajpal becoming the CM.

Jaipur crash triggers blast

PARUL KULSHRESTHA
Jaipur, December 20

AT 5:45 AM — 15 MINUTES after he dropped his nephew Harihar and another relative, both of the Jaipur-Ajmer highway to board a truck to take them back home — Mohanlal (47) got a distressing call: there had been an explosion and that Harihar was nowhere to be found.

The explosion occurred after the truck they were travelling in was taking a U-turn on the highway. According to officials, 11 people died and 40 vehicles were scorched in the accident. Within seconds, Mohanlal turned around on his bike and shot straight to the spot. "It took me a good 15 minutes to find Harihar," he said at Sawai Man Singh Hospital in Jaipur, where both his nephew and Raju are currently being treated. According to officials, 32 people were wounded in the incident, seven of whom are on ventilator support. It took the fire department over seven hours to get the fire completely under control. Among the wounded are 20 passengers of a sleeper bus that was caught in the explosion. "It was dark when it happened and it was difficult to see what was happening. But when we came to know an LPG tank had collided with a truck," said Manish Gupta, the Station House Officer of Bhankota Police Station.

Firefighters douse the fire at the accident site after a truck loaded with a chemical collided with some other vehicles and caught fire on Jaipur-Ajmer Highway, in Jaipur on Friday. 11 people died and 40 vehicles were scorched in the accident.
