SpiceJet Expands Domestic Network with Eight New Flights Starting November 15

New Routes Add to Winter Expansion Plan as Airline Increases Connectivity Across Key Cities

GURUGRAM, November 06, 2024: SpiceJet is further expanding its domestic network with the launch of eight new flights starting November 15, 2024. These new routes will connect Jaipur with Varanasi, Amritsar and Ahmedabad, while also linking Ahmedabad with Pune. This expansion follows the recent launch of 32 new flights in October 2024, including two international flights connecting Delhi with Phuket.

Last month, SpiceJet also commenced UDAN flights linking Shivamogga in Karnataka with Chennai and Hyderabad, and introduced double daily flights between Chennai and Kochi, enhancing connectivity across key regional and metropolitan cities.

“We are excited to announce the launch of new flights from Jaipur to Varanasi, Amritsar, and Ahmedabad, as well as from Ahmedabad to Pune, providing our passengers with greater flexibility and convenience. These new flights reflect our commitment to supporting passenger demand across tier-II cities and beyond. With our expanded winter schedule, including international and UDAN routes, we aim to provide our customers with greater convenience, affordability, and seamless travel experiences,” said Debojo Maharshi, Chief Business Officer, SpiceJet.

SpiceJet will deploy its 78-seater Q400 aircraft in these sectors. Bookings for the new flights are now open and tickets are available at www.spicejet.com, SpiceJet's mobile app and through online travel portals and travel agents.
