JOHNSON TA

Bengaluru, August 11

THE POPULAR SAYING that "a week is a long time in politics" is now playing out in Karnataka for Congress and its CM Siddaramaiah, who have seemingly emerged stronger from a crisis that had threatened to dislodge the CM recently.

Siddaramaiah, whose prospects of continuing as the CM looked bleak early this month when the BJP and JD(S) launched a protest march from Bengaluru to Mysuru over the alleged illegal allotment of 14 Mysuru housing plots to his wife, seemed to have ridden the storm and emerged unscathed on Friday, a day ahead of the protest march's arrival in Mysuru. The chief minister had looked troubled when he recused himself from a Cabinet meeting and handed the reins to his Deputy CM D K Shivakumar on August 1 following a notice issued by Governor Thaawarchand Gehlot over the land allotments to Siddaramaiah's wife by MUDA. But on Friday, at a Congress rally in Mysuru, he appeared his usual self.

At the rally, held to counter the Opposition demand for his resignation over alleged scam, the CM asserted that he was not going to "budge or bow".

CM Siddaramaiah said he won't 'budge or bow' to Opp demand for resignation

With the Congress leadership deciding to back the CM on the issue and fight the matter in courts, Siddaramaiah appears to have found his political footing again.

Several of his supporters, who looked despondent last week over Siddaramaiah's possible exit, emphasised Friday that he was set to continue as the CM on account of the campaign against him "misfiring" and strengthening the CM instead of weakening him. "Sometimes when you attempt to weaken somebody they end up becoming stronger," Satish Jarkiholi, a close associate of Siddaramaiah said.

"There is no question of him (Siddaramaiah) exiting. In this country, there are hundreds of persons with cases against them who are ministers at the Centre or in states," he said.

Siddaramaiah's resurgence is being seen as a temporary setback for Shivakumar, who has been aspiring to replace Siddaramaiah. The Deputy CM, who was a strong force in rallying support for the CM amid the crisis last week, was also said to be waiting for a slip-up by Siddaramaiah to stake his claim for the CM's post.

Congress backing

Several factors are seen as contributing to Siddaramaiah's comeback and one of them is the Congress leadership's backing despite reportedly pulling him in a private meeting in Delhi for allowing the allegations to emerge within a year of the the party coming to power.

The Congress leadership is reported to have told the CM and the Deputy CM to end the practice of "adjustment politics" with their rivals in BJP and ID(S) and to highlight corruption and criminal cases involving Opposition leaders. At the rally, Siddaramaiah launched a counter-attack on the Opposition leaders and cited cases against them.

The Congress leadership was reported to have considered a change of the CM but refrained on account of Siddaramaiah's stature as a backward class leader.

AAP: SC should take note of allegations levelled by Hindenburg

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA New Delhi, August 11

THE AAP ON Sunday demanded that the Supreme Court take note of the allegations levelled by US short seller Hindenburg against SEBI chief Madhabi Puri Buch., Hindenburg Research has alleged that it suspects SEBI's unwillingness to act against Adani Group may be because Madhabi Puri had stakes in offshore funds linked to the conglomerate - an allegation that the SEBI head called "baseless" and an attempt of "character assassination".

Addressing a press conference here, AAP Rajya Sabha MP Sanjay Singh said the SEBI had told a Supreme Court panel that the investigation into the Adani group was "directionless", "SEBI chief and her husband's money was invested in shell companies. Why were these facts hidden from the Supreme Court? The apex Court should take note of the new developments and how facts were hidden," he said., The Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) in October 2020 began a probe into the shareholding structure of Adani Group companies after red flags were raised over high concentration of foreign holdings in the conglomerate's listed companies.

Investigation was launched to determine if the foreign investors are genuine public shareholders or acting as fronts for the promoters. The SEBI last year had told a

Supreme Court-appointed panel that it was investigating 13 opaque offshore entities that held between 14 percent and 20 per cent across five publicly stocks the conglomerate. It hasn't stated if the two incomplete probes have since been completed, something which Hindenburg used to attack the market regulator., Madhabi and her husband Dhaval Buch in a joint statement strongly denied the "baseless allegations and insinuations made in the report". The same, they said, "are devoid of any truth", "Our life and finances are an open book," they said.

"It is unfortunate that Hindenburg Research against whom SEBI has taken an enforcement action and issued a show cause notice has chosen to attempt character assassination in response to the same."
