'DROPPER' STUDENTS IN WAIT-AND-WATCH MODE

NEET coaching biz hit up to 30% as enrolments fall

MANU KAUSHIK
New Delhi, June 27

COACHING INSTITUTES IN India are witnessing 20-30% drop in business for their NEET preparation programmes. Experts said the decline in enrolments from "dropper students" is impacting both offline and online players.

"Dropper students, who account for nearly 40% of the overall NEET-UG enrolments, are in a wait-and-watch mode even as the enrolment for the current batch has begun," said Kapil Gupta, co-founder and CEO of NEETprep.com, an online testing platform. Dropper students are those who have attempted the exam before but couldn't secure a seat in the institutes of their choice.

As per some estimates, large offline players such as Allen Career Institute, Aakash Educational Services, Physics Wallah and Sri Chaitanya, have an annual enrolment of 0.7 million students.

"The enrolments for the next batch are down roughly 30%. The enrolments usually last for three months to July/August, and if there's no clarity on the NEET-UG by then, repeat students might look for other options instead of waiting for a few months to prepare again. It will be a loss of business for NEET coaching institutes this year," said a NEET expert.

On July 8, the Supreme Court is slated to hear the petitions of parents and students seeking cancellation of the exams. They have opposed the arbitrary awarding of grace marks to 1,563 candidates by the National Testing Agency (NTA) which resulted in a large number of aspirants scoring high marks. NTA is responsible for conducting NEET-UG exams for admissions to MBBS, BDS, AYUSH and related courses. The ministry of education,

Paper leak: CBI makes its first arrests

THE CBI ON Thursday made its first arrests in the NEET-UG paper leak case, taking two people in custody in Patna, officials said. Manish Kumar and Ashutosh Kumar allegedly provided safe accommodation to the medical entrance exam aspirants before the examination where they were given leaked question papers and answer keys, the officials said. Both were produced before a special court in Patna which sent them to judicial custody, they said. The CBI will now seek their remand to question them. Ashutosh Kumar had allegedly taken 'Learn Boys Hostel and Play School' in Patna on rent, from where the economic offence unit of Bihar police had recovered half-burnt NEET-UG question papers. The CBI has found that Ashutosh Kumar knew that the premises were being used for providing question papers to NEET aspirants, they said.

Manish Kumar, they said, allegedly struck deals with candidates who were ready to pay to get the question papers in advance. He then brought these candidates to the hostel, where they were provided with the paper and the answer key, they said. The aspirants remained in the hostel till the examination and prepared for the paper held on May 5. The CBI has registered six FIRs in the NEET paper leak case. — PTI

meanwhile, has referred the matter to the CBI for a thorough investigation. "There's a lot of uncertainty around the NEET-UG 2024, which is affecting the enrolments in a big way. Even if the candidates get some clarity in July on re-test, it's unlikely that the dropper students would enrol for NEET-UG in October this year," said Gupta.

Experts suggest the size of NEET-UG coaching market is roughly 13% (or ₹7,600 crore) of the overall coaching industry (₹58,000 crore). The NEET coaching business has already been facing challenges since the government decided to align the difficulty level of NEET-UG with that of Class 12 board exams following the spate of student suicides in Kota. In fact, education minister Dharmendra Pradhan initially defended the "exam leak" controversy by suggesting that the issue was instigated by coaching centres. Pradhan said this was due to a high number of toppers in NEET-UG 2024 because of the government's efforts to bring down the difficulty levels in the recent years.

Georgia No. 7 Kvaratskhelia outshines his idol Ronaldo

SAYAK DUTTA
Kolkata, June 27

"WILL I ASK Cristiano for his jersey after the game? Maybe. Probably. OK, yes. Why not? He is my idol. I will tell him that. But that does not mean we can't win," This was what Georgia's No. 7 Khvicha Kvaratskhelia had written in the Players Tribune last week. Ten days later, Georgia outplayed Portugal and notched up a historic 2-0 win.

The No. 7s have a connection. Recently an old picture of the two started making rounds on the internet. It was from 2013 when Cristiano Ronaldo, a certified Real Madrid superstar then, visited the Dinamo Tbilisi Academy in Georgia.

Kvaratskhelia, a 12-year-old boy then, was poking his head from over the crowd standing around Ronaldo. On Thursday night, the boy, now a 23-year-old, made sure that the picture was back in circulation as he helped Georgia advance to the Last-16 in their first appearance in a major tournament.

The Veltins-Arena witnessed history on the night when Kvaratskhelia not only outshone his much more decorated Portuguese counterpart, he ensured that his country, the lowest ranked team in this tournament, can dream big. Ninety-three seconds. That was all it took for Kvaratskhelia to stun Portugal. Portugal looked shell shocked as the Georgia players wheeled off in celebrations with the match not even two minutes old. Kvaratskhelia's move for the goal was simple and straightforward, a classic counter attack, something of a rarity in this era. It perfectly encapsulated how Georgia have played this tournament, an uncomplicated, kamikaze style of attack. Hailing from the Georgian town of Batumi, Kvaratskhelia made his senior debut with Dinamo Tbilisi before moving on to FC Rustavi. But with his skill and flair, he would soon outgrow the Georgian League and move on to bigger things. He would join the Russian team Lokomotiv Moscow in 2019 on loan, around the same time he made his debut for the national side. In the same year, he would move to Rubin Kazan.

But fate would bring him back to Georgia. After Russia invaded Ukraine in 2022, FIFA decreed that foreign players in Russia could unilaterally suspend their contracts and sign for clubs outside of Russia. This led to Rubin suspending Kvaratskhelia's contract which led to him joining Dinamo Batumi, a Georgian club.

In July of 2022, Kvaratskhelia would sign for the club in which he would become a legend. Spurred on by his father, a Diego Maradona fan, Kvaratskhelia had no second thoughts saying yes to Napoli.

The stint in Napoli is what made Kvaratskhelia a household name. He scored 12 goals and assisted 13 times in the 2022/23 season as Napoli went on to win the Serie A title for the first time since 1990, the last time Maradona had played for the club. The winger, a vastly different player from the Argentine legend in his playing style, was thus given the nickname of Kvaradona, a sign of ultimate respect from Napoli fans.

Georgia next play Spain on Sunday night, a team they haven't beaten since 2016. But after the display on Thursday, all bets are off.
