Sub: Clarification on fluctuation of share price

Dear Sir/Madam

This is with reference to clarification sought from Hanman fit limited for the fluctuation of market price of the company. The company would like to inform that the company does not have any undisclosed price sensitive information or corporate action that needs to be intimated to BSE. Further, please note that the company has disclosed all material disclosures and relevant information within prescribed timelines as laid down by BSE.

The fluctuation in the share price is purely market driven and a result of the market conditions on which the company neither has any control or has any knowledge about the reasons.

Further, we assure that the company shall disclose all information and compliances within prescribed timelines in future as well.

Kindly take the same on your record and acknowledge.
