Yatharth Hospitals expand its footprints in New Delhi

Dear Sir / Madam,

We would like to inform that Company has been declared as the successful bidder of super specialty hospital located in Delhi. The acquisition is under the SARFAESI Act 2002 through e-auction. The acquired hospital is a well-established hospital based out of Model Town, New Delhi offering all the high super specialty services. The hospital has an expandable capacity of 300 plus beds and caters to a large catchment of residential and institutional client base. The hospital will give us a firm presence in the attractive market of Delhi along with strengthening Yatharth’s positioning as a leading super specialty chain of Northern India.

Commenting on the development, Yatharth Tyagi, Whole time Director of Yatharth Hospitals, stated: “We are pleased to announce entry into Delhi market, which will further consolidate Yatharth Hospitals’ position as a leading private healthcare provider in North India, and enhance our capacity to deliver quality healthcare services in the region. This is in line with our unwavering commitment to growth through strategic expansion, both organic and inorganic modes, showcasing our expertise in developing new healthcare facilities and successfully turning around existing operations.”
