the Centre over the past de-cade, and also by some states. The Narendra Modi government had reduced no-re than 42,000 compliances and decriminalised over 3,800 provisions to boost ea-se of doing business, accor-ding to an official statement late last year.

Trump Tactics

The Survey does not specula-te on possible Trump tactic-s—nobody can say exactly what he will do, since he cons-tantly says different things and is not interested at all in coherence or predictability. But this results in excessive optimism in the Survey. It fa-ils to mention that it is being presented at a time when the rupee as well as stock markets are falling at daunting speeds. Trump has created so many uncertainties that global in vestors are pulling out of emerging markets like India and shifting to the safe haven of the US. The result is a fall in all emerging market currencies, and the RBI's attempts to stabilise the rupec are reducing its competitive measurement. The reducing the re
