- 5 The Company has since the inception of Accounting Standard 22 on Accounting for Taxes on Income, recognised the deferred tax expense, which arises primarily from depreciation on tangible fixed assets on the basis of the currently applicable enacted Minimum Alternate Tax rate rather than the regular tax rates specified by paragraph 21 of Accounting Standard 22. The Company has challenged the provisions of Accounting Standard 22, insofar as it relates to the above matter and has accordingly filed a writ petition in June 2003 before the Andhra Pradesh High Court. The case has subsequently transferred to Calcutta High Court. The writ petition has been admitted and is currently pending resolution. The quantification of the deferred tax liability, and consequential impact on the accompanying Statement, which may arise due to the above, has been held in abeyance pending disposal of the writ petition. The Auditors have drawn attention to this matter in their reports.
