Thereafter, XUK, invoked the corporate guarantee on the Company. The Board of Directors of the company, in the meeting held on June 10, 2011, acknowledged the liability of Rs.29,336 to XUK on account of invocation of the corporate guarantee and the rights of XUK were subrogated to the Company (which was reflected as an asset recoverable from CISGI in recognition of the legal right). 12. On August 1, 2002, the Company issued 1,500,000, 11% debentures of face value of Rs.100 each. The debentures were repayable at par at the end of five years from the date of issuance. Based on the orders of the Debt Recovery Tribunal, the Company had issued duplicate debenture certificates for 625,000 debentures (which form a part of the said 1,500,000 debentures) in favour of a Bank in June 2007. These debentures were redeemed in June 2007 and the same was disclosed in the annual report for the year ending March 2007. In August 2007, a civil suit was filed against the Company before the Hon'ble Madras High Court by another company ("Third Party"), claiming rights over the said 625,000 debentures. Decision on this suit is still pending before Hon'ble Madras High Court. On the basis of an interim application filed by the Third Party, the Hon'ble High Court passed an Interim Order in September 2007 restraining the Company from reflecting the redemption of debentures and directing the Company to continue to show it as due and payable. The said Order was made absolute in December 2010. The Company, in consultation with a senior legal counsel, has filed an appeal against the interim order of the Hon'ble High Court contending that it is not possible to show the debentures as due and payable as the debentures have already been redeemed and also reflected as redeemed in the Company's accounts prior to passing of Interim Order. The Company is awaiting the decision of the Hon'ble High Court in the Company's appeal, pending which; no adjustment has been made in these accounts.
