Commenting on the successful implementation, Mr. Dieter Lützelschwab, CEO, eny Finance, said, "We were looking for a solution that could offer us the right blend of services. The flexibility of the product and robustness of the architecture is what facilitated the decision making at our end. Nucleus' domain expertise added to the strength of their offering. Given the fact that eny Finance is at an early stage of growth, it was imperative that we partner with a solution provider that has the right experience and appropriate solution matching our current and future needs."

Mr. Vishnu R. Dusad, CEO & MD, Nucleus Software Exports Limited, said, "We are extremely happy to add another milestone through our association with eny Finance. Nucleus' FinnOne™ is a perfect fit for eny Finance's dynamic needs and its scalability will match their future growth.
