Aurionpro Solutions Named Among Top 100 Global Providers of Financial Technology

Prestigious recognition reflects Aurionpro's growth through innovative software and services offerings

Mumbai, India – November 11, 2013 (Marketwire)

Aurionpro Solutions, a global provider of software and expert-level consulting services, announced that it has again been recognized by the FinTech 100 as one of the leading firms providing technology solutions to the Financial Services Industry. The FinTech 100 is an annual international listing of the top vertical technology vendors that derive more than one third of their revenue from this industry as named by American Banker, Bank Technology News, and IDC Financial Insights.

"This ranking illustrates Aurionpro's strength in providing some of the most innovative cash management, payments, and lending solutions to the global financial services market," said Amit Sheth, Aurionpro's Managing Director. "Our continued growth is a testament to the business value that banks around the globe have achieved through the selection of our software and services offerings."

Aurionpro ranked 88th on the list of financial technology companies that were judged according to their global revenues, signifying the company's stability and prominence in the industry. Aurionpro's Banking and Financial Technologies group continues to invest aggressively in evolving the product lines in order to expand the company's value proposition. Cutting edge features that provide a unified customer experience and application access through mobile devices will help Aurionpro's customers achieve competitive advantage and increase operational efficiencies.
