Explanatory statement as required under Section 173(2) of the Companies Act, 1956 and section 102 (1) of the Companies Act, 2013

Sale of Business of Leather Services:

Clariant Chemicals (India) Ltd. ("Company") is currently engaged, inter alia, in the business of pigments, additives, masterbatches, industrial & consumer specialties, leather services and oil and mining services and has manufacturing plants located at Roha, Kolshet (Maharashtra), Cuddalore and Kanchipuram (Tamilnadu).

The Company on October 30, 2013 has informed the stock exchanges that Clariant International, a world leader in specialty chemicals, the holding company of Clariant Chemicals (India) Ltd., announced on that day that it plans to sell its Leather Services business to Stahl Group Company. Stahl Holdings B.V., a member of Wendel Group, is a Dutch company providing high quality chemicals, dyes and coatings for leather and other applications. The combination of both businesses would create a global leader in leather chemicals with a larger and higher growth profile than the stand-alone entities and with significant synergy potential.

Clariant Chemicals (India) Ltd. is active in Leather Service business and this has contributed about 16% of net sales revenue of the company for the current period of 9 months upto Sept. 2013. The proposal to divest its leather service business is considered by the Board and will be subject to appropriate approvals, as may be required under Companies Act.

Considering its long-term strategy and overall objective to serve markets with future perspective and strong growth rates, Clariant decided to sell its Leather Services Business and thereby reposition its portfolio. In order to align with the long term strategic intent of the group, the Company intends to sell the Leather Services Business together with the assets pertaining to this business.

In accordance with Section 293(1)(a) of the Companies Act, 1956 and section 180(1) (a) of the Companies Act, 2013 read with Rule 5 of the Companies (Passing of Resolution by Postal Ballot) Rules, 2011, the Company seeks the consent of its shareholders through postal ballot for the sale of the Leather Services Business together with assets and liabilities, the details of which are given above as a going concern by way of a slump sale to M/s. Stahl India Private Limited or any other entity in India being affiliate of Stahl Holdings B.V. Group for a consideration not less than Rs. 156 crores. The consideration so received by the Company (net of tax) will be used for furtherance of the Company's business.

The services of managers and workers currently dedicated for the operations of the Leather Services business (including marketing and laboratories) and from amongst various support services and administrative functions as may be required will be transferred to the acquiring company.

The Board is of the opinion that the aforesaid restructuring is in the best interests of the Company and recommends the passing of the special resolutions set out in the above Notice by the members through postal ballot.

None of the directors of the Company are concerned or interested in this resolution.
