INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Members of
SURYALATA SPINNING MILLS LIMITED,
SECUNDERABAD.

Report on the Financial Statements:

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of SURYALATA SPINNING MILLS LIMITED, SECUNDERABAD ("the Company"), which comprise the Balance Sheet as at March 31, 2013, and the Statement of Profit and Loss and Cash Flow Statement for the year then ended, and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements:

Management is responsible for the preparation of these financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance and cash flows of the Company in accordance with the Accounting Standards referred to in sub-section (3C) of section 211 of the Companies Act, 1956 ("the Act"). This responsibility includes the design, implementation and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility:

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. Those Standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the Company's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of the accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Re: SURYALATA SPINNING MILLS LIMITED, SECUNDERABAD.

Annexure referred to in paragraph 1 of our report of even date,

1. a) The Company has maintained proper records showing full particulars, including quantitative details and situation of fixed assets.
- b) As explained to us, the management has physically verified most of the fixed assets during the year and there is a regular programme of verification which, in our opinion, is reasonable having regard to the size of the Company and the nature of the assets. No material discrepancies were noticed on such verification.
- c) The plant and machinery disposed off during the year by the company is not substantial and hence, it has not affected the going concern status of the Company.
2. a) The Inventory has been physically verified during the year by the Management. In our opinion, the frequency of verification is reasonable.
- e) In our opinion, the procedures of physical verification of inventories followed by the management are reasonable and adequate in relation to the size of the company and the nature of its business.
- e) The Company is maintaining proper records of inventory. The discrepancies noticed on physical verification between the physical stocks and book records were not material.
3. a) The company has not granted any loans, secured or unsecured to companies, firms or other parties covered in the register maintained under section 301 of the Companies Act 1956.
- b) In view of our comment in paragraph 3(a) above, III (b), (c) & (d) of the aforesaid order are not applicable to the company.
- c) During the year, the company has not taken unsecured loans from the parties covered in the register maintained under section 301 of the companies Act 1956.
- f) In our opinion the rate of interest and other terms and conditions on which loans have been taken from the other parties listed in the register maintained under section 301 of the Companies Act 1956 are not prima-facie prejudicial to the interests of the company.
- g) The company is regular in payment of the principal amount and interest thereon as stipulated.
4. In our opinion and according to the information and explanations given to us, there are adequate internal control systems commensurate with the size of the Company and the nature of its business with regard to purchase of inventory, fixed assets and with regard to sale of goods and services. During the course of our audit, we have not observed any continuing failure to correct major weaknesses in internal control system.
