Aurionpro Solutions Named Among Top 100 Global Providers of Financial Technology

Improved ranking reaffirms position as leading payments and banking technology provider.

November 19, 2014 – Mumbai, India (Marketwire)

Aurionpro (NSE: AURIONPRO) (BSE: 532668), a leading provider of banking and payments software to global financial services organizations, announced today that it has been included again in the FinTech Forward 100 list of leading technology providers in the world.

"We take pride in the technological superiority of the transaction banking and lending solutions that we provide to our Fortune 1000 clients" said Samir Shah, Chief Executive Officer, Aurionpro, "Our solutions are designed and delivered to help our clients innovate and succeed in their marketplaces and this improved ranking from FinTech Forward is clear testimony to our growth. We will continue to invest and bring new, compelling solutions to market."

In 2014, Aurionpro has been ranked 79th on the list of financial technology companies in the FinTech Forward 100. Aurionpro is a leading provider for the industry, with over 60% of its global revenues coming from the Financial Services industry. The company specializes in delivering technology software and solutions around payments, lending, and integrated customer experience, through a host of products and platforms.

FinTech Forward, a collaboration of American Banker and BAI, brings together the research, media, and event capabilities of banking's top two professional information and education organizations. The initiative includes the annual FinTech Rankings of technology vendors to the financial services industry and new proprietary research and market analysis conducted by BAI and American Banker to identify the forces and trends that are motivating technology investments in banking. Aurionpro has previously been named amongst the Top 100 four times in the last six years.
