Highlights of the Chairman's Speech

The Chairman mentioned that the year 2013-14 had ended with the highest ever net profit recorded by the Company at Rs.150.15 crores compared to Rs.126.25 crores previous year, reflecting an increase of 18.9%. He mentioned that the net sales had been Rs.784.68 crores compared to Rs.663.70 crores previous year.

He mentioned that dividend payout of Rs.70 per equity share was another highest ever dividend recommended as compared to Rs.62.50 per equity share of previous year.

He informed that the performance of leaf sales continued to be stellar and had a record turnover.

He informed that the industry continued to face taxation challenges mainly due to increase in VAT and Excise duty.

He mentioned about the political changes both at the Centre and in the State and the statutory changes in the form of enactment of new Companies Act, changes in the listing agreement and the Company's compliance with new provisions.

He informed that the Company continued to collaborate with L V Prasad Eye Institute to support high quality comprehensive eye care to lower socio-economic segment of the society. The Company has also facilitated installation of solar lights in the tobacco growing villages in association with the village panchayats.

He mentioned that the Company continued to maintain high safety performance and has been presented with the following awards during the last financial year :

- President Award for the year 2013 by Royal Society for Prevention of Accidents (RoSPA), UK for maintaining highest standards in Occupational Health and Safety.
- Safety Innovation Award for the year 2013 by Institute of Engineers (India), New Delhi

He mentioned that the long term impact on the industry with the new Governments both at Centre and State will be evident only after a while. The industry has been severely impacted due to steep increase in the excise duty on cigarettes in the Union Budget and the Company is doing everything possible to mitigate the adverse effect.

He appreciated the performance of dedicated Management team, employees, workers and contractors and thanked the shareholders, business associates and other stakeholders for their support and encouragement.
