

Eros International's sports drama Saat Kadam starring Amit Sadh, Ronit Roy and Deeksha Seth goes on floor

Mumbai, October 29, 2015: Eros International Media Ltd (Eros International), a leading global film company in the Indian film entertainment industry is all set to produce a fictional sports drama Saat Kadam starring Amit Sadh, Ronit Roy and Deeksha Seth.

Saat Kadam is the debut feature film of director Mohit Kumar Jha who is well-known for directing popular daily soaps on the small screen like Choti Bahu, Hitler Didi and Parvarrish. Based in Kolkata, Saat Kadam will be a sports drama that mainly revolves around the generation gap and the relationship between a father and his son. The film went on floor earlier this week in Kolkata.

Commenting on this new venture, Sunil Lulla, Managing Director, Eros International Media Ltd. said, "Mohit has done some great work in television and we are happy to produce his debut feature film. It promises to be an emotionally gripping film set against the backdrop of football."

Director Mohit Kumar Jha said, "I am absolutely thrilled to have a leading studio like Eros on board for my first feature film. Saat Kadam is an entertaining film for audiences of all ages who will be able to relate to emotional tug of war portrayed in the film. The film is based in Kolkata which is known for its eternal love for football and as a sports loving nation, I hope the audiences will appreciate this film."

Actor Amit Sadh further added, "Saat Kadam beautifully portrays a father-son relationship and the many facets of it. When I heard the story I knew I had to do this film, one that will be high on emotions, drama and above all football!"
