New Delhi, October 5, 2015

PFS announces its Credit Enhancement Scheme

PTC India Financial Services Limited (PFS), a leading Infrastructure Finance Company, today announced introduction of its Credit Enhancement Scheme as part of its efforts to step up lending to quality infrastructure projects in the country. As part of the scheme, PFS will offer credit guarantee after detailed appraisal to eligible projects along with other financial institutions for providing partial guarantees for projects and the same shall be backed by adequate security.

Dr. Ashok Haldia, Managing Director & CEO, PTC India Financial Services Limited (PFS) said,

"We are pleased to introduce Credit Enhancement Scheme, which will help the viable infrastructure projects within eligible category, to enhance their credit rating for their borrowing programmes. At a time, when credits worthy projects seek to optimize their cost of funds, this is expected to provide PFS with newer opportunities in infrastructure space."
