Press Release: Gurgaon, 29 October 2015

SpiceJet today announced that its Chief Operating Officer, Sanjiv Kapoor will be leaving the Company effective October 31, 2015 after two years with the organisation. He shall be serving his notice period as per the terms of his employment agreement.

“After overcoming significant challenges and under the new ownership, SpiceJet has not only returned to profitability, it has been a fundamental catalyst behind the world leading market growth in India. Thanks to SpiceJet, competition has been kept alive in the Indian airline industry. I wish the entire SpiceJet family continued success, a success story I can always look back at with pride”, said Sanjiv Kapoor.

“We thank Sanjiv for leading SpiceJet at a very difficult time. He has been, and will remain, a strong and passionate supporter of the airline. We wish Sanjiv all success in his future endeavours”, said Ajay Singh, CMD.
