

Kellton Tech expands into Europe; launches new office in Ireland

Hyderabad, IN – December 10, 2015: Kellton Tech, a global IT services and solutions company based in Hyderabad, India, today announced its expansion into Europe with a new office in Ireland. Kellton Tech's plans to gain foothold in Europe receive a boost with this development as it prepares to bring its full range of IT offerings to European market.

Kellton Tech would provide services in the areas of ISMAC (Internet of Things, Social, Mobile, Analytics, Cloud), ERP-EAI (Enterprise Resource Planning & Enterprise Application Integration) among its wide range of IT services. The move is consistent with Kellton Tech's strategy to expand its reach to wider geographies even as it looks forward to expand its technological offerings.

The company will step up its hiring efforts in Ireland and Europe to help support its aggressive growth plans for the European market. The development marks a key milestone in Kellton Tech's journey, whose rapid growth in the recent years garnered media attention and recognition.

Commenting on the expansion, Niranjan Chintam, Founder & Chairman, Kellton Tech said, "Launching this office is central to our strategy of foraying into the European market and beyond. Given our strong presence in US and India, expansion to Europe has always been a part of our strategic plans. The new office will offer improved proximity and service to European customers and will serve as the springboard for further global growth of Kellton Tech."
