

Cambridge Technology Enterprises Expands U.S. Operations

Technology services leader opens offices in Florida and Washington

Hyderabad, 12th March 2015 – Cambridge Technology Enterprises (BSE: CTE), an IT services leader focused on the convergence of big data and cloud, today announced a million-dollar commitment through relocating its Cambridge Technology Inc. headquarters in North America to Topeka, Kansas, along with the opening of two new strategic regional locations.

Cambridge Technology Enterprises Ltd has primarily focused on servicing clients in the Midwest over the past decade. The new offices – located in Miami/Fort Lauderdale, Florida and Seattle, Washington, enable CTE to maintain close proximity with its customers and work collaboratively with key partners. The opening of these new offices demonstrates CTE's commitment to providing clients with the highest quality service possible.

Commenting on the company's recent developments, Aashish Kalra, Chairman of Cambridge Technology Inc., said, "We are encouraged by the promise and potential business opportunities in the Midwest region. By moving our headquarters, we're committing to this area and working proximately with our key customers."

CTE's Florida office is focusing on client growth strategies and addressing business needs through analytics and big data solutions. In Seattle, CTE is leveraging experience working with key cloud service, specializing in marketing and client servicing operations.
