Khaitan and Co. Law firm said it expects foreign shareholders to increase their stake in Indian insurance companies. "This should see entry of new players in the Indian insurance sector and interest from global private equity funds, sovereign wealth funds and other institutional investors," it said.

Bupa to raise stake in Max India to 49%

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA

New Delhi, March 13

The UK-based healthcare group Bupa will increase its stake in Max Bupa from 26 per cent to 49 per cent, said the company today a day after Parliament approved the law to hike foreign investment cap in the insurance sector.

Max Bupa is a 74:26 joint venture between Max India and Bupa. "We warmly welcome the passing of the Insurance Laws Amendment Bill in the Rajya Sabha, enabling us to submit our application to increase our shareholding in Max Bupa from 26 per cent to 49 per cent," Bupa said in a statement.

"Together with Max India, we are committed to developing the business and the health insurance market," said David Fletcher, Managing Director, International Development Markets, Bupa.

Max India Group has presence in life insurance, health care and health insurance sectors.

denied that this episode has anything to do with IndusInd Bank. Our bank maintains the highest standards of compliance, integrity and corporate governance." The CBI on Thursday arrested a Mumbai-based chartered accountant and two government officials for allegedly leaking and selling confidential documents related to foreign investments from the finance and commerce and industry ministries. According to reports, CBI said eight corporate houses are under the scanner: DLF Limitless Developers, HDFC Bank, Glenmark Pharma, Modril India, Prime Living, Nova-Lead Pharma, IndusInd Bank and Kakardi British Realty.
