LCV & MHCV segment volumes grew by 4% YoY in February 2015. The CV segment continued its strong run and CV plant is operating at more than 90% and the order book for coming 3-4 months is extremely robust. The company is debottlenecking its JSR plant to expand capacity to address the supply issues to cater maximum dispatches.

Exports dropped by 4% to 1.24 Lacs in February 2015 vs. 1.29 Lacs February 2014. The MoM improvement is still happening and we are hopeful that this recovery will continue going forward.

Domestic Tractor segment volumes dropped by 30% in February 2015. The tractor segment is continuing the YoY drop in dispatches but the MoM improvement is clearly visible with over 15% growth in February 2015 as compared to January 2015. The March month order book is further looking up and improvement of 10-15% is expected from February 2015.

Kindly take the same on your record.

Thanking You.

Yours Faithfully,

For Steel Strips Wheels Limited
