Celica is a related party of the Company within the meaning of Section 2(76) of the Companies Act, 2013. Under Section 188 of the Companies Act, 2013 the following types of transactions require the approval of the shareholders of the Company if the monetary value thereof exceeds certain thresholds prescribed under the Companies (Meetings of Board and its Powers) Rules, 2014:

- (g) Underwriting the subscription of any securities or derivatives thereof, of the company.

Although a transaction for subscription to the Celica NCDs, does not technically constitute a 'purchase of any goods or materials' or 'buying property of any kind' and accordingly does not strictly fall within the ambit of the types of transactions covered by Section 188 (which are set out above), as a matter of good corporate governance, the Board has decided to seek the approval of the shareholders of the Company, with respect to the Company's subscription of the Celica NCDs under the provisions of Section 188 of Companies Act, 2013.
