Prez mantra for Telangana, AP: Be good neighbours

Hyderabad, July 3

MID rating tensions between Telangana and Andhra Pradesh over different issues, President Pranab Mukherjee today said both states to live together in peace...

Observing that problems are bound to exist, particularly when the new entity is created out of the parent state, the honoree said...

The President observed that problems are bound to exist, particularly when a new state is carved out of the parent state

'I would like to suggest that we should have a better relationship with our domestic relations and also in our international relations, that we can choose our friend...

'Our neighbours are going to stay where they are. We are likely to stay where we are. But it is for us to decide whether we should live with our neighbours in peace, harmony or in perpetual tension. The choice is ours,' he said.

He also quoted one of the 10 commandments, "love your neighbour", to drive home the need for both states to live together in peace.

'The concrete may appeal to all concerned would be, now it is the reality, Telangana has come to being, Telangana, Andhra and all other bordering states, work in close harmony because we belong to India and in working with close harmony, we will ensure our sustainable development,' he said.

Initiatives like Clean India, Make in India and Digital India are aimed at achieving growth and sustainable development, he said.

FTII row: Centre says it won't reconsider Chauhan appointment

New Delhi, July 3: The government on Friday rejected a plea by the Institute for Training and Research in Technology to reconsider the appointment of TV actor Gajendra Chauhan as the head of the institute...

ister Arun Jaitley, who met students and faculty members including Oscar winner Raju Poojity and filmmaker Girish Kasarwalli, also asked them to "get back to class" and allow normal functioning of the institute.

'While there is no doubt that the institute has made a number of assurances, including non-interference in the functioning of the pre-graduate establishment...

that government had no intention to interfere in the working of the institute. He also assured them of all technological support to make it a national centre of excellence, an official source said.

After the meeting, Poojity said, "While many assurances were given, the core issue was protesting has not been resolved satisfactorily."

Another AAP MLA in fake degree row
