8 die, homes of Minister, MLAs targeted in Manipur protests

FIGHT PEOPLE were killed and 27 a second day in Manipur's tribal hill district of Churachandpur afthree bills, including clauses that relate to purchase of land by non-Manipuris and fixing 1951 as the baseyear to identify non-indigenous people.

The houses of Health Minister

The houses of Health Minister Phungzathang Fonsing and five other MLAs, as well as the vehic-cle of the deputy commissioner of Churachandpur, were set on fine by the protesters. While the minister, the MLAs and their families were unhurt, an indefinite curfew has been imposed in the area. Sources said the Minister and the MLAs were targetted because they failed to prevent the bills from being passed.

Manipur People Bill, 2015: Manipur Feople Bill, 2015; Manipur Land Revenue and Land Reforms (7th Amendment) Bill, 2015; and Manipur Shops and Establishments (2nd Amendment) Bill, 2015. Of these, the Protection of Manipur Peo-ple Bill, 2015, is a prototype of the Inner Line Permit (ILP) system.

Ine protesting translatuent organisations have claimed that the three bills overlap Article 371 C of the Constitution and Majour Hill People Administration Regulation Act, 1947. Their primary objection is to the Maniput Land Revenue and Land Reform Act (7th Amendment) Bill 2015.

6th schedule. We believe that the Manipur government has slyly introduced the Land Reforms Bill under the garb of ILP. In any case, the tribals have not been supporting the ILP not been supporting the ILP movement, it is primarily a Meitei demand. We feel that by introducing the land Bill the Manipur government and the Meiteis will try and grab our land. The land in tribal hill areas and The land rush all grad out land. The land rush land ress is governed by customary laws-say governed by customary laws-say for land rollings. With this Bill, the land will fall under the control of the deputy commissioners and the Manipur government. They will try and take our land from us," said a member of the protesting kuki Students Organisation (KSO). Forthe first time inyeast, traditional rivals Nagas and Kukis have come together to agittate against the Bill in the face of "a common enemy." The battle-lines have been drawn," said the KSO member.
