As Britain courts Beijing, golf club rues Chinese takeover

London, Jan 10: London has been easyling up to Beijing in re-cent years in the hope of attract-ing Chinese invastment, but in one leafy corner of England the love-in has turned to acrimony. Long-time members of Went-worth, shallowed golf dub in the Long-time intensees of went-worth, a hallowed poil (abl in the affiliant county of Survey Just west of Londen, accuse the new Chinese owners of using an eye-watering feeblike to getride them and turn the club into apreserve of the global ulbra-cich.

The dispute has caused diplo-materipples, with interventions from Britain's Foreign Secretary Philip Hammond, who repre-sents the local areas in partiament, and from the Chinese embasey in London. At issue is a plan by Bel-jing-based property and invest-ment from Reignwood Group, which bought Wentworth most, that would require members to which tought require members to pay 100,000 pounds ($136,000) to re-main part of the club and double maximum annual fees to 15,000
