Sandeep Kishore, CEO and Managing Director, Zensar Technologies commented, "We are excited to have Manoj Jaiswal join our executive team. Manoj's experience as a public company's Chief Financial Officer over many years, as well as his strong financial and operational expertise will be instrumental as we drive towards Zensar's long-term growth objectives. Manoj Jaiswal, who will take over the role from January 16, 2016 on the occasion said, "I am delighted to be taking on this role in the new growth phase of Zensar, and hope to bring my experience in the IT industry to fore as Chief Financial Officer at Zensar. I have great regard for RPG Enterprises and am looking forward to this new stretch of my journey within the Group, albeit in a new company."

Manoj takes over this role from S Balasubramaniam, who has played the CFO of Zensar for 11 years, and has been with RPG Enterprises for over 28 years in finance and commercials functions.
