Kellton Tech wins two National Awards in IT Excellence

Mumbai, IN – February 20, 2016: Kellton Tech, a global IT company based in Hyderabad, today announced that it won two awards at the National Awards in IT Excellence – 2016, endorsed by Asian Confederation of Businesses and 'Stars of the Industry' group.

Kellton Tech won an award in the category of 'Best e-governance Implementation' in recognition of its contribution to Digital India, particularly its role in developing and deploying mSehat, a SIFPSA initiative to enable health workers in Uttar Pradesh to improve maternal-infant mortality rate outcomes. It exceeded the expected performance levels by facilitating a ten-fold increase in registrations, demonstrating the ease and effectiveness of its solution.

The company was also recognized as the 'Emerging IT Company of the Year'. Kellton Tech, having just concluded its ninth acquisition in recent years, has fortified its strength in the area of digital technologies. Incidentally, Kellton Tech was also ranked 21st on the Deloitte Technology Fast 50 India in 2014, a survey that ranks the top 50 fastest growing technology companies in India.

The National Awards in IT Excellence recognizes companies that demonstrate IT skills in transforming business, optimizing costs, developing synergies across businesses and enhancing customer satisfaction. Kellton Tech received this dual recognition alongside prominent players of Indian industry like Capgemini, SBI, HDFC Bank, Tech Mahindra, Titan, and Reliance Capital among many others.

"We are a leading company in enabling digital transformation of organizations and are glad to be recognized for our efforts in this area," said Niranjana Chintam, Founder and Chairman, Kellton Tech.
