Aptech puts Fiji back on the map of global I.T. education
The flagship I.T. brand, Aptech Computer Education will be offered in Fiji

India, 25th May, 2016: Aptech Ltd, one of the leading training companies launches its flagship IT brand, Aptech Computer Education, to empower the students in Fiji with latest technologies and an international curriculum. The inaugural ceremony for the same was conducted recently at the Grand Pacific Hotel in Suva. Dr. Mahendra Reddy from the Ministry of Education, Fiji, was the guest of honour.

On the occasion of inaugural ceremony, Dr. Reddy said, "There is no doubt that information technology has intensely altered all facets of our day to day lives. We will work with APTECH to help push the frontier and will offer a range of opportunities not only to children who choose IT education as their career path but to adults and working people who are already in the workforce".

Fiji, the island country has been rapidly evolving in the I.T. space. With the launch of Aptech Computer Education (ACE), the students would get better avenues to explore in the I.T. industry. The Aptech Certified Computer Professional program offered by ACE provides one such opportunity to students. Through the unique credit transfer facility, students get a chance to study in the esteemed Middlesex University at one of its campuses in London, Dubai, Mauritius or Malta. There are a host of opportunities that the student gets on completing the course. Some of them are Website Developer, Database Analyst, Android Developer, and System Analyst among many others.

Also present at the event, Aptech Fiji's CEO Ratu Meli Bainimarama said, "Right now, Aptech Fiji is based here in Suva. There are plans for expansion of Aptech and the first expansion works will be to Lautoka and along the Suva to Nausori corridor. There are also plans to take Aptech to other parts of the pacific region".

Commenting on the inaugural ceremony, Mr. Pravir Arora, EVP & Head International Business said, "We are delighted to expand our presence in Fiji. There is immense potential in the country and we shall strive to empower the youth with in-depth learning and updated technologies. In the fast evolving IT industry, there is a lot of scope for growth and development. We believe Aptech will help each student realise his/her dream of having a successful career in I.T."
