Zensar Technologies Presented with Check Point Service Excellence Award

Industry Security Leader Check Point Recognizes Zensar for Championing Security Solutions

Westborough, MA – May 16, 2016: Zensar Technologies, a leading digital solutions and technology services company, has received a Service Excellence Award from Check Point Software Technologies Ltd. (NASDAQ: CHKP). Check Point presented the award and recognized Zensar at the recent SecureWorld Boston conference. Check Point's Service Excellence Award is presented to partners that have gone above and beyond to champion Check Point products and services. The award also recognizes partner organizations which have demonstrated a commitment to excellence in the installation and support of Check Point products and services.

Zensar has been a longstanding valued partner of Check Point since 1995, and is a Check Point 4-star Expert, Certified Support and MSP Partner. Zensar provides implementation and 24x7 support of Check Point's high performance solutions from our highly trained and certified Check Point security analysts. Zensar also offers an Advanced Persistent Threat \(APT\) Mitigation service that is powered by Check Point.

Sandeep Kishore, CEO and Managing Director, Zensar Technologies commented, "We value our partnership with Check Point and this recognition outlines our focus towards empowering global CIOs to meet emerging security threats. The security threat landscape is getting more complicated and sophisticated and a digital transformation roadmap is incomplete without adequate security preparedness."

"We are honored to be recognized by Check Point as a partner exemplifying Service Excellence," said Patrick Zanella, AVP, Security, Compliance and Product Global Practice Head, Zensar Technologies. "The award showcases our strong technical ability and superb service capability that allows us to provide significant impact and become trusted advisors to our clients."

"Check Point and Zensar have a long history of partnership and driving business value together that reflects the strength of the Zensar team and the value that we place on their experts," said John Norko, Director, Channel & Distribution Sales North America, Check Point. "Zensar truly delivers a high level of performance and expertise for implementing and maintaining our solutions."

Zensar partners with industry leading technology providers such as Check Point to deliver dynamic security solutions that are preventive, predictive and proactive to ensure the critical security and compliance of our client's infrastructure environments. Zensar offers a full suite of services and solutions all provided within a comprehensive security framework including Security Event Management; Vulnerability/Threat Assessments; Proactive Threat Analysis and Intelligence; Virtual Information Security Officer (VISO); PCI/HIPAA Assessments and Audits; and Governance Risk and Compliance.
