“Our pursuit of learning, excellence and robustly conservative financial structure helped us strengthen India's case as a global textile hub.”

Shri Paul Oswal
A fellow shareholder

Dear shareholders,

Vardhman has always selected to go about its business silently and the last few years were no different.

During the last 24 months, the Company enhanced its customer recall through excellence and consolidated its business through an organisation-wide exercise in enhancement of performance parameters in line with global benchmarks.

In going back to the drawing board, Vardhman re-visited all systems and processes for their relevance in today's dynamic environment. We strengthened every process. We relooked all performance benchmarks. We re-examined every service and solution.

We did this not from the narrow perspective of strengthening our performance; we did so with the objective to strengthen India's case as a global textile hub.

In doing so, we grew profitability and liquidity. During the last year, our total EBIDTA increased 19.44% and net profit strengthened 81.85%. I am pleased to state that total EBIDTA and net margin strengthened 436 bps and 544 bps respectively.

Vardhman utilised this performance improvement to repay ₹720.08 crore of debt (in 2015-16) resulting in a cash balance of ₹1,096.41 crore as on March 31, 2016, which includes cash and other marketable securities.

The next step

Our strategic priority was deliberate.

It has been my experience that when companies focus on capacity building, operating efficiencies take a back seat, product quality declines, and the sub-standard becomes the new standard.

When this transpires, as we believe they will across the medium term, they will provide attractive consolidation opportunities.

By then, we would have utilised our operating efficiency to repay debt and generate a war chest to capitalise on compelling opportunities.

Message to shareholders

When seen from a medium-term perspective, our strategic priority is to emerge with low leverage in a capital-intensive business.

We believe that this will enable us in future to keep our options open, organically and inorganically.

The past couple of years we focussed on tightening the nuts and bolts of our enterprise and in improving efficiencies across the board. This also gave us the breathing space to better consolidate our fabric business which was very important.

The Company is now in the midst of expansions in fabric capacities, part of which, a printing line, has already commenced commercial production in March 2016. This phase of expansion will be rolled out over the next three years, including the current financial year, and will entail a capex of approximately ₹1000 crore towards increasing weaving (looms) capacities, increasing our yarn dyed and printing fabric capacity, besides some line balancing equipment.

We are also contemplating the next leg of expansions which would be in spinning and fabrics.

We have always believed in the long term future of the Indian Textile Industry and we envisage ample opportunities for the same in the new government policy and we are hopeful that it will give the requisite impetus for the growth of the textile sector. At Vardhman, we feel that there will be a larger reward in preparing patiently for opportunities which may come up in the future.

We believe that the older we become, the more youthful should be our spirit!

It has been my experience that when companies focus on capacity building, operating efficiencies take a back seat, product quality declines, and the sub-standard becomes the new standard.

“We will invest about ₹1000 crore over the next three years, which will include expansion in a fabric printing line and yarn dyed fabric capacity.”

Q. Were you happy with the Company’s performance in 2015-16?

A. Yes. The management was pleased even as headwinds persisted that moderated our topline (2.07% decline over the previous year). Despite this reality that should have potentially hurt our earnings, our total EBIDTA increased 19.44% - from ₹1,099.66 crore in 2014-15 to ₹1,313.42 crore in 2015-16; our operating EBIDTA (which excludes dividend and investment income) increased 8.53% - from ₹1,054.89 crore in 2014-15 to ₹1,144.89 crore in 2015-16. Our business health improved – Total EBIDTA margin improved by more than 400 bps and Return on Capital Employed by more than 150 bps to 20.68% in 2015-16.

Q. What were the reasons for this kind of profitable growth in operating margins?

A. Essentially one: organisation - wide consolidation. We implemented multiple projects to benchmark our systems and process with the best global practices. The initiative yielded heart warming returns: we enhanced output, strengthened productivity, optimised costs, eliminated waste and strengthened the product mix. When we embarked on this journey, most of these improvements were considered unattainable. Now the organisational mood is ‘Nothing is impossible’.

Return on Capital Employed grew by more than 150 bps to 20.68% in 2015-16.

Q. Vardhman’s financial performance was relatively unaffected by headwinds. How do explain this?

A. We are a large company with multiple product lines and multiple customers. Our quality focus had positive impact: we accessed larger and better customers, which strengthened volumes; we marketed directly to yarn users (as opposed to doing so through market intermediaries), which strengthened realisations and a first-hand understanding of market trends. By the virtue of vertical integration, we could shift from the manufacture of yarn to fabric based on prevailing margins. The result was that despite our presence in a yarn surplus geography, we experienced a shortage of capacity.

Inaguration of our new fabric printing line at Auro Textile Unit - II.

Q. Following the decline in polyester prices, how was cotton demand affected?

A. The shift is continuous: the world over, the proportion of synthetic fibres in the consumption mix is increasing and this trend is likely to sustain. Since you can get enhanced qualities in fabric following the blending of synthetic fibres with cotton, the consumption of a number of fibres is increasing. At Vardhman, we are not 'married' to cotton; we are increasing blended yarn capacity; our fabric range comprises a sizable range of cotton tencels, cotton modals, cotton polyester and cotton stretch, among other products. The proportion of blended products in our sales mix has increased – in yarn from 24% to 31% in the last five years; in fabrics from 29.35% to 44.33% over the same period.

Priorities for 2016-17

- Sustain consolidation
- Stabilise our recently commissioned new print fabric line
- Prepare for the next leg of expansion

Q. When is the balance between polyester and cotton likely to tilt in favour of the former?

A. The relationship between Cotlook A index and international polyester staple fiber prices is best explained in the 1:1.3 ratio. If the ratio exceeds this tipping point, polyester and synthetic yarn consumption generally increases. Following the decline in crude oil prices, we are at 1:1.7, indicating a consumption preference for manmade fibres translating into a sizeable increase in the production of blends and non-cotton yarn.

Q. Cotton prices have started moving up. How has that impacted the industry?

A. A sharp increase in Indian cotton cost generally has no impact on yarn realisations. However, we are aware that when this transpires, a number of yarn companies could start shutting production. This transpired in India towards the latter part of 2015-16, which arrested a significant decline in yarn prices. In India, cotton production, as estimated by CAB, was 33.8 million Indian bales in 2015-16 against 38.6 million bales in the previous year. In the beginning of the season, Indian cotton prices were low and hence competitively placed in the international market. This helped India in exporting 6.7 million bales from October - March 2016. In the latter half (April, 2016 onwards), Indian prices increased due to a shortage in supply, accelerating capacity closures over the medium-term that could strengthen yarn realisations in India. However, Vardhman follows a conservative policy for stocking cotton for off-peak season.

Q. Is the Company waiting to capitalise on this scenario?

A. The Indian textile industry is expected to provide asset consolidation opportunities. The RBI and banks are becoming more stringent in cleaning non-performing assets off their books; banks are assuming control of stressed assets for onward sale that could help recover dues, providing attractive acquisition opportunities.

Q. How does the Company intend to capitalise?

A. We intend to invest about ₹1000 crore across three years in expanding our fabric (printing line and yarn dyed) capacity. The Company enjoys a leadership position in the yarn business (domestic and international), which will be strengthened through de-bottlenecking and equipment addition; our focus is on attaining a dominant position in the high-margin fabrics business through the capacity addition of about 45 million meters, of which 10 million meters will comprise printed fabric line expected to go on stream during the current financial year (full impact 2017-18 onwards). We are also contemplating the next phase of expansions.

Management discussion and analysis

Economic overview

Global perspective

In 2015, global economic activity remained subdued as GDP grew at a modest 3.1% against 3.4% in 2014.

Although, growth in emerging markets and developing economies – while still accounted for over 70% of global growth; it declined for the fifth consecutive year. While a modest recovery continued to transpire in advanced economies. Three key transitions continue to influence the global outlook: the gradual slowdown and rebalancing of economic activity in China – away from investment and manufacturing and towards consumption and services; lower prices for energy and other commodities; a gradual tightening in monetary policy in the US lead to a resilient recovery; several major economies continued to ease their monetary policies.

Overall growth in China is evolving broadly as envisaged, but a faster-than-expected slowdown in imports and exports, reflects weakening investments and manufacturing activities. These developments, together with market concerns about the future performance of the Chinese economy, are spilling over to other economies through trade channels, weaker commodity prices, diminishing confidence and increasing volatilities in financial markets.

Global GDP growth is projected at 3.4% in 2016 and 3.6% in 2017. Growth in advanced economies is projected to rise

The emerging markets control 80% of the global textile output. Hence China's shift towards the service sector along with Brazil and Russia will take a toll on the sector.

by 0.2 percentage points in 2016 to 2.1% and hold steady in 2017. Growth in emerging market and developing economies is projected to increase from 4% in 2015 – the lowest since the 2008–09 financial crisis – to 4.3% and 4.7% in 2016 and 2017, respectively. (Source: IMF)

Domestic overview

India's economy expanded at a faster pace in 2015-16 despite a slowdown in GDP expansion in the third quarter of the fiscal under review. India's GDP growth stood at 7.6% in 2015-16 against 7.2% in 2014-15 catalysed by a superior performance of the manufacturing sector (9.5% growth in 2015-16 against 5.5% in 2014-15).

2015-16. The slide in global oil prices since late 2014 boosted economic activity in India and underpinned a further improvement in the current account and fiscal positions.

Looking ahead, the Economic Survey 2015-16 has projected GDP growth of 7-7.75% in 2016-17. According to the IMF, India continues to be the bright spot in an otherwise slowing global economy. It forecasts India's GDP growth at 7.5% in FY17 supported by stronger domestic demand.

The textile business

Global industry overview

The textile and apparels sector is an important sector making a sizeable contribution to economic progress. Being a basic product its output has grown consistently over the years. While the developed economies are the key consuming markets for textiles and apparels, the manufacturing bases have shifted from the West to Asian locations due to cost considerations.

In Asia, China is the leading player in the textile space commanding 44% share in the global textile trade. The recent China's move towards a service economy is expected to cause a significant global supply chain alteration, benefiting the South East Asian countries. Credible research suggests that India, Bangladesh and Vietnam will stand to gain the maximum from China's altered economic China's loss. India's gain.

- The rise in China's power and labour costs and its increased focus on domestic market offers a lot of scope for Indian spinners to export their products.
- China's currency has appreciated against the US dollar over the past four years (May 2011-May 2015) as against a significant depreciation in India's currency in the same period. It gives India an added advantage over China in export markets.
- China has stopped importing cotton and cotton yarn since the past 12 months. It had inventory of 90mn bales as against consumption of 50mn bales per annum. The quality of cotton or ability of cotton to produce quality yarn will be higher only for a period of 12 months. After 12 months, the quality of cotton deteriorates and the yarn produced from such cotton is of inferior quality.
- China is cutting down some low value-added processes like manufacturing yarn from cotton, which in turn results in high demand for cotton yarn from China.

focus. Also decreasing labour availability and increasing production costs is expected to hamper the growth of the Chinese textile industry.

In addition, two major trends are expected to have a visible impact on the global textile industry during 2016-17:

The mounting deflationary pressures of commodities and consumer prices would deteriorate sales for textiles and clothing segment by 1% in 2016 (5% in 2015).

Two major topics – technical textile and sustainable production – remain unattended again in 2016.

The main reason of the reduced sales in the textile and clothing was the unusually low commodity prices (cotton -15%, wool -7%, and manmade fibres +1%) and multiple currency depreciations worldwide, particularly in the emerging markets.

Looking forward, demand will be fueled by population growth (+500 million inhabitants by 2020) and higher incomes contributing to increased household purchasing power. GDP per capita is expected to keep rising, increasing by +4% annually between 2015 and 2020.

The growth in the manufacturing sector was due to a significant fall in input costs following the collapse of global commodity prices. India's economy recovery was also facilitated by other factors: a large gain in terms of trade (about 2.5% of GDP); implementation of positive policies by the Central Government and reduction in external vulnerabilities.

The RBI policies helped contain demand pressures, created a buffer against external shocks and kept a check on the volatility of the rupee and inflation. According to the Economic Survey 2015-16, inflation measured by the Consumer Price Index (CPI), which averaged 6.5% in 2014-15, could decline to 5-5.5% in

Indian industry overview

The Indian textile industry is one of the most important industries for the Indian economy considering its contribution to employment generation, industrial output and foreign exchange earnings. The industry is the second-largest employer after agriculture, providing employment to over 45 million people directly and 60 million people indirectly. India accounts for ~14% of the world's production of textile fibres and yarns and has the highest loom capacity (including handlooms) with 63% of the world's market share. The domestic textile and apparel industry in India is estimated to reach US$141 billion by 2021 from US$67 billion in 2014. Increased penetration of organised retail, favourable demographics, and rising income levels are likely to drive demand for textiles India is the world's second largest exporter of textiles and clothing. Textile and apparel exports from India are expected to increase to US$82 billion by 2021 from US$40 billion in 2014. Readymade garments remain the largest contributor to total textile and apparel exports from India. In FY15 the segment had a share of 40% of all textile and apparel exports. Cotton and man-made textiles were the other major contributors with shares of 31% and 16%, respectively.

Considering the importance of the textile sector, the Central Government has implemented important policies that are expected to catalyse the growth of the Indian textile sector over the coming years. The TUFS scheme of the Government of India and other subsidy schemes of various state governments have kept the cost of borrowed funds in low single-digit, ensured continuous power at subsidised cost and other benefits like capital subsidy and sales tax/VAT concession. Besides, the Government has allowed 100% FDI under the automatic route facilitation foreign investments.

Prospects and promises

The future for the Indian textile industry looks promising, buoyed by both strong domestic consumption as well as export demand. With consumerism and disposable income on the rise, the retail sector has experienced a rapid growth in the past decade with the entry of several international players into the Indian market. In addition, the expected slowdown in the Chinese textile sector is expected to open interesting growth opportunities for the Indian textile players over the medium term.

What factors will drive volumes?

Population growth: India will overtake China as the world's most populous nation by 2022, according to a new UN report. In 2015, India had 1.311 billion people, according to the UN's new estimates, against China's 1.376 billion, a difference of 65 million people.

India's growth youth segment: India is a young nation where 40% of its population is under the age of 35 years and a million people turn 18 every month. This expanding youth segment will drive the demand for fabric and apparel.

Increasing per capita income: The per capita income of the average Indian has increased from ₹71,050 in FY13 to ₹93,231 in FY16. This number is expected to cross ₹1 lakh in FY17.

Increasing e-commerce awareness:

On account of increasing awareness among consumers about product quality, change in consumer attitude and shopping habits, India's e-commerce market is expected to grow at a burgeoning rate through 2020. According to recently released TechSci Research report "India E-commerce Market Forecast & Opportunities, 2020", the country's e-commerce market is forecast to grow at a CAGR of over 36% during 2015-2020.

The cotton scenario

Global scenario: World 2015-16 cotton production was projected at 21.81 million tonnes, 16% below over last cotton season (2014-15). India and China accounted for over half of the global crop, with India contributing 27%

Governmental emphasis on the textiles segment

Funding scheme: The Centre announced the Amended Technology Upgradation Fund Scheme (ATUFS) (to replace the Revised Restructured TUFS) aimed at attracting investments of ₹1-lakh crore and creating over 30 lakh jobs. The new scheme targets employment generation and export by encouraging the apparel and garment industry. Under the new scheme, there will be two broad categories; one for apparel, garment and technical textiles, wherein 15% subsidy will be provided over five years on capital investment not exceeding ₹30 crore. The second category, comprising all the other sub-sectors, will get 10% subsidy, subject to a ceiling of ₹20 crore.

and China supplying 24% of the 2015-16 production, as per the ICAC (International Cotton Advisory Committee).

World cotton production has declined for fourth consecutive season in 2015-16 and stood at a twelve year low. This decrease resulted from both a reduction in cotton areas and average yields. Total harvested area was estimated at 31.2 million hectares (the lowest since 2009-10), as low cotton prices in 2014-15 discouraged farmers from cotton planting.

The global yield is projected at 705 kilograms per hectare in 2015-16, compared with 766 kilograms per hectare last season and 2013-14's record of 804 kilograms per hectare.

Global cotton consumption in 2015-16 was estimated at 23.65 million tonnes, 3% (0.68 million tonnes) below the preceding season but similar to the four-year average. With crop shortfalls being recorded around the globe during the season, world cotton mill use will exceed production for the first time since 2009-10.

China – the leading cotton spinner – used 7.08 million tonnes of raw cotton in 2015-16 due to its slowing economy; it is continuously declining since 2009-10. Higher wages and domestic cotton prices, particularly in comparison with polyester prices, have made cotton spinning less attractive.

World cotton trade is projected at 7.37 million tonnes for 2015-16, about 4% below the previous season and 25% lower than 2012-13's record of 9.79 million tonnes. Lower imports by China have largely reduced the amount of raw cotton that has been traded over the last several seasons, although increases by a number of other countries have partially offset China's reduction. In 2015-16, China is forecast to import only 1.08 million tons of raw cotton, compared with 5.342 million ton, imported in 2011-12. Vietnam and Bangladesh, on the other hand, is expected to become the leading cotton importer this season (with imports near 1.10 and 1.08 million tons respectively) as the both country's textile industry continues its expansion.

Indian scenario: India accounts for a third of the world's cotton area. In the country, nearly two thirds of the cotton is produced in the central states of Maharashtra, Gujarat, Andhra Pradesh and Telangana.

Cotton is a major product of the Indian textile industry and over 65% of total mill fibre consumption in country is Cotton. Among all the fabrics and yarns produced, cotton is the main fabric. Its share in the spun yarn segment stayed at 73% in FY15.

After reaching a record area of 12.8 million hectares in 2014-15, area under cotton cultivation in India is forecast down 7% to 11.9 million hectares.

Cotton season 2015-16:

India's cotton area contracted by 7% in 2015-16 while yield declined by 6% over 2014-15. As a result, production in India (for year 2015-16) fell by 13% to 5.61 million tonnes (330 lakh bales). Imports for the current season are expected to be 0.255 million tonnes (15 lac bales) compared to 0.245 million tons (14.39 lac bales) in 2014-15. Analysis of financial statements

(Based on standalone financial statements)

Despite a downturn in the yarn markets in India and across the globe, Vardhman registered a healthy growth in business profits and profitability – an outcome of the successful implementation of the consolidation initiatives across the organisation.

Statement of Profit and Loss

Revenue from operations

(gross): Revenue from operations (gross) declined by 2.70% from ₹5,742.03 crore in 2014-15 to ₹5,587.14 crore in 2015-16. This decline was primarily due to subdued yarn prices. Further, exports also decreased owing to the prevailing volatility in the global economic and business environment. Further, there was only a marginal increase in sales volumes considering minimal increase in operating capacities. A growth in value-added products partly cushioned the decline in revenue from operations.

Operating costs: Operating costs declined by 6.24% from ₹4,800.44 crore in 2014-15 to ₹4,501.04 crore in 2015-16. This decline was largely owing to a decline in the cost of materials consumed consequent to a superior cotton sourcing strategy.

Employee expenses increased from ₹350.83 crore in 2014-15 to ₹410.38 crore in 2015-16. This increase was primarily due to the annual increment to the team.

Other expenses remained at the previous year level despite an increase in the operational scale. This was primarily due to the organisation-wide consolidation initiatives implemented during the period under review.

Finance cost: It reduced from ₹121.54 crore in 2014-15 to ₹86.85 crore in 2015-16 – a decline of 28.54%. This was primarily due to a repayment of term loans and initiatives taken to reduce the average interest cost for the Company. The interest cover – a measure of the Company's ability to meet its interest liability, strengthened from 5.03x in 2014-15 to 10.96x in 2015-16.

Margins: Focus on value-addition, superior cotton procurement together with cost optimisation initiatives implemented across the organisation facilitated in an increase in the Company's profits and profitability.

The EBIDTA margin improved by 436 bps from 19.15% in 2014-15 to 23.51% in 2015-16. The EBIDTA margin excluding dividend from subsidiaries also strengthened from 18.93% in 2014-15 to 20.76% in 2015-16, an increase of 183 bps. Balance Sheet

As the business emerged more profitable, the Company became increasingly liquid. It utilised its cash reserves to repay its external liabilities – thereby retaining the integrity of its Balance Sheet.

Capital employed: Increased by 9.74% from ₹5,787.75 crore as on March 31, 2015 to ₹6,351.58 crore as on March 31, 2016 to fund increased business operations. The return on capital employed stood at 20.68% in 2015-16 against 19% in 2014-15. This improvement was registered despite a subdued business environment.

Shareholders' funds: Increased by 18.48% from ₹3,083.38 crore as on March 31, 2015 to ₹3,653.18 crore as on March 31, 2016. This increase was owing to an increase in the reserves and surplus balance as the majority of the profits earned during the year were ploughed into the Company to fund growth aspirations. As a result, the book value per share increased from ₹484.41 in 2014-15 to ₹573.93 in 2015-16.

Debt portfolio: The long-term debt portfolio declined from ₹2,037.34 crore as on March 31, 2015 to ₹1,581.41 crore as on March 31, 2016 – a decline due to the repayment of term loans totaling ₹720.08 crore. Even as long-term loans declined, short-term loans (working capital loans) increased from ₹468.55 crore as on March 31, 2015 to ₹928.75 crore as on March 31, 2016 consequent to building cotton inventory for the current year. The Company's debt-equity ratio declined from 0.81x as on March 31, 2015 to 0.69x as on March 31, 2016. The debt-equity ratio (excluding short-term borrowing for working capital inventory) declined even sharper – from 0.66x as on March 31, 2015 to 0.43x as on March 31, 2016.

Scheduled long-term debt repayment in 2016-17 (₹ crore)

to ₹2,477.27 crore as on March 31, 2016 - despite an asset addition to the tangible asset block of ₹363.33 crore. The decline was due to the significant increase in the provision for depreciation – it decreased from ₹488.85 crore in 2014-15 to ₹361.92 crore in 2015-16 – in keeping with the altered depreciation rules as per the Company's Act 2013.

Net current assets: The net current assets stood at ₹2,677.61 crore as on March 31, 2016 against ₹2,463.37 crore as on March 31, 2015 as the Company continued to streamline its working capital cycle. The increase in trade receivables and inventory balance over the previous year was partly offset with an increase in trade payables balance. The current ratio stood at 6.73x as on March 31, 2016 against 5.95x as on March 31, 2015; the average working cycle stood at 171 days in 2015-16 against 160 days in 2014-15.

Internal control systems and their adequacy

At Vardhman, we maintain a system of well-established policies and procedures for internal control of operations and activities. We continuously strive to integrate the entire organisation from strategic support functions like finance, human resources, and regulatory affairs to core operations like research, manufacturing and supply chain. The internal audit function is further strengthened in consultation with statutory auditors for monitoring statutory and operational issues. The Company's internal audit team periodically tests the adequacy and effectiveness of all internal control systems and suggests improvements. Significant issues are brought to the attention of the audit committee for periodical review. The enterprise-wide risk evaluation and validation process is carried out regularly by the Risk Management Committee and the Board of Directors. To set the tone for the Company to attain effective and efficient internal control and documentation, we have institutionalised a document management system for both core and strategic operations.

Managing business risks

Every business is marked by a variety of risks. Vardhman identifies and assesses risks associated with its business and correspondingly undertakes strategic measures to minimise losses and maximise realisations. The Company leverages its five-decade rich experience to undertake proactive measures that strengthen business viability across projects, geographies and market cycles and allay shareholder apprehensions and bolster growth prospects.

GROWTH RISK

Growth for a textile company is largely dependent on capacity addition.

Mitigation: Following the capacity expansion completed in FY2007-08, the Company has focused on streamlining its operations to derive the maximum output from its asset bank. The Company has prudently utilised these funds to deleverage its financial statements (debt-equity ratio of 0.69x as on March 31, 2016) and create a war chest of (cash and marketable securities) ₹1,096.41 crore as on March 31, 2016) to be utilised for capitalising on emerging opportunities. The focus on value-addition at the product level and asset-sweating at the operational level is expected to sustain Vardhman's growth momentum over the coming years. The management keeps analysing various organic and inorganic growth opportunities.

COMPETITION RISK

Growing competition could eat into the Company's business and profitability.

Mitigation: The Company's focus on innovation – both in the yarn and fabrics – enables it to offer one of the widest product baskets in both product verticals. Further, the Company's ability to customise products in line with the requirement of its key customers strengthens the bond. Besides the Company's consistently superior product quality and impeccable timelines strengthens customer loyalty to the Vardhman brand. As a result, business with key customers has grown over the years even as the Company has continued to add to its customer base.

COST RISK

Inflationary headwinds could adversely impact the Company's cost management plans.

Mitigation: For the purchase of cotton, the Company has a team of experts on the subject who analyse the cotton markets globally and in India to determine optimum purchase price for cotton. Besides, the Company's continuous focus on equipment modernisation and cost optimisation has resulted in growing EBIDTA and improving profitability margins.

DEBT RISK

The Company needs to repay debts cumulating to ₹984.44 crore over the next 24 months.

Mitigation: The Company repaid debt amounting to ₹720.08 crore in 2015-16 – the largest such repayment made by the Company in its history. Despite the payment, the Company had a cash reserve (parked in cash and marketable securities) amounting to ₹1,096.41 crore as on March 31, 2016. Besides, the growing cash flow from operations would only enhance organisational liquidity facilitating timely debt repayment.

DECISION-MAKING RISK

The significant expansion of business operations could impede accurate and timely decision-making.

Mitigation: The Company is making sizeable investments in strengthening its organisational IT infrastructure. For instance, all shop floor machinery and inventory depots will be connected seamlessly via a top-of-the-line ERP platform. This will facilitate accurate production planning across locations and communicating precise delivery schedules to customers.

ANNEXURE – B TO THE AUDITORS' REPORT

Report on the Internal Financial Controls under Clause (i) of Sub-section 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act")

Report on Internal Financial Controls

1. We have audited the internal financial controls over financial reporting of Vardhman Textiles Limited ("the Company") as of 31st March 2016 in conjunction with our audit of the standalone financial statements of the Company for the year ended on that date.

Management's Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls

2. The Company's management is responsible for establishing and maintaining Internal Financial Controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting (the "Guidance Note") issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India ('ICAI'). These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Companies Act, 2013.

Auditors' Responsibility

3. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's internal financial controls over financial reporting based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note and the Standards on Auditing, issued by ICAI and deemed to be prescribed under section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013, to the extent applicable to an audit of Internal financial controls, both applicable to an audit of Internal Financial Controls and issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate Internal Financial Controls over financial reporting was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

4. Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the Internal Financial Controls system over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.
5. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company's internal financial controls system over financial reporting.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

6. A company's Internal Financial Control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that;
 - (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company;
 - (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorisations of management and directors of the company; and

- (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorised acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

7. Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Opinion

8. In our opinion, the Company has, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting and such Internal Financial Controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at 31st March 2016, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.

ANNEXURE - A TO THE AUDITORS' REPORT

Report on the Internal Financial Controls under Clause (i) of Sub-section 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act")

Report on Internal Financial Controls

1. In conjunction with our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the Company as of and for the year ended 31 March 2016, we have audited the internal financial controls over financial reporting of Vardhman textiles Limited ("the Holding Company") its subsidiary companies and its associates which are companies incorporated in India, as of that date.

Management's Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls

2. The Respective Board of Directors of the Holding Company and its subsidiary companies and its associates, which are companies incorporated in India, are responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting (the "Guidance Note") issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India ("ICAI"). These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Companies Act, 2013.

Auditors' Responsibility

3. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's internal financial controls over financial reporting based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note issued by ICAI and the Standards on Auditing, issued by ICAI and deemed to be prescribed under section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls, both issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting were established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.
4. Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material mis-statement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.
5. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained and the audit evidence obtained by the other auditors in terms of their reports, referred to in paragraph 9 of the other matters paragraph below, is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company's internal financial controls system over financial reporting.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

6. A company's Internal Financial Control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's Internal Financial Control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that
 - (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company;
 - (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the company; and

- (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting

7. Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material mis-statements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Opinion

8. In our opinion, the Holding Company and its subsidiary companies and its associates, which are companies incorporated in India, have, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at 31st March 2016, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the ICAI.

Other Matters

9. Our aforesaid reports under Section 143(3)(i) of the Act on the adequacy and operating effectiveness of the internal financial controls over financial reporting in so far as it relates to four subsidiary companies and one associate, which are companies incorporated in India, is based on the corresponding reports of the auditors of such companies incorporated in India.
