Axis Bank has been asked by SEBI to conduct an internal inquiry into the source of alleged leakage of unpublished price sensitive information relating to its financial results and to strengthen its systems.

The Bank has been working closely with SEBI during the course of preliminary examination conducted in the matter on leakage of UPSI of listed companies, including that of the Bank. The Bank adheres to highest norms of governance and reiterates its commitment to adequacy of processes, systems and controls, particularly to prevent unauthorized access to UPSI.
