IndusInd Bank appoints Gaurav Kapur as Chief Economist

Mumbai, February 6, 2017: IndusInd Bank announces the appointment of Mr. Gaurav Kapur, as Chief Economist of the Bank, as a part of the Global Markets Team.

Gaurav will be based in Mumbai and be responsible for formulating IndusInd Bank's economic forecasts and developing cross-border thematic research. He will also look at tracking the local and global macro-economic environment and formulating views, opinions and forecasts about the Indian economy, markets and policy environment. He has extensive experience in the field of country risk management and sovereign ratings and has worked on the credit ratings review of key economies in Asia including India.

Gaurav is a Post-graduate in Economics from Delhi School of Economics and holds PG certification in management from XLRI, Jamshedpur. He has built an illustrious 18 year career as an economist, advising senior management on macro and micro-economic trends in the country. Gaurav started his stint with Indian Council for Research on International Economic Relationship (ICRIER) and has worked for the last 16 years as a senior economist with Royal Bank of Scotland, erstwhile ABN AMRO Bank – India. Gaurav is also a member on the RBI's committee for review of the national household inflation expectations survey, which is now a key input for monetary policy.

IndusInd Bank MD & CEO Mr. Romesh Sobti said, "We are very happy to have Gaurav on board and are confident that his in-depth research and analysis of local and global macro economies will give a broader framework to develop our strategy to help us achieve excellence in our business."
