NEWS RELEASE

Manappuram Home Finance (P) Limited to go Digital; Selects Nucleus Software's FinnOne Neo Cloud

New Delhi, India. May 01 2017 – Nucleus Software, the leading provider of lending and transaction banking solutions to the global financial services industry, announced today that Manappuram Home Finance Pvt. Limited has selected FinnOne Neo Cloud, Nucleus Software's cloud based lending solution. This is the fourth win in India for FinnOne Neo Cloud since the specialized solution was launched seven months ago.

Backed by strong economic conditions and Government initiatives such as Pradhan Mantri Awas Yojana (PMAY) – a 3 phase programme designed to build more than 20 million homes by 2022 – the number of Housing Finance Companies (HFCs) is increasing. With increased competition, HFCs are seeking to provide fast, convenient and cost effective services to their customers. As a leading technology solution provider to the Banking and Financial Services Industry for the last 3 decades, Nucleus Software is committed to helping HFCs attain their business goals by leveraging digital services in cloud.

To support their growth plans and transform to a digital operating model, Manappuram Home Finance needed a sophisticated, flexible, high performance lending solution. After rigorous evaluation of the solutions available in the market, Manappuram Home Finance selected Nucleus Software's FinnOne Neo Cloud as it is designed to cater to the specific business needs of Housing Finance Companies. This solution offers a unique combination of comprehensive functionality, flexibility and ability to deliver customer-centric products and services.

FinnOne Neo Cloud is a highly automated, workflow based and technologically advanced lending solution, designed to offer best-in-class loan lifecycle management capabilities combined with the power of cloud. It will enable Manappuram Home Finance to streamline operations, launch tailored products in a matter of minutes and offer comprehensive services across multiple channels. To leverage the power of mobile in loan origination and collections, the company will also implement FinnOne Neo Lending Mobility Solutions – mCAS and mCollect. With these mobility solutions Manappuram Home Finance will be able to take decisions faster, streamline collection processes and reduce operational costs. FinnOne Neo Cloud at Manappuram Home Finance will be deployed on Amazon Web Services (AWS) cloud platform.

Mr. V.P.Nandakumar, Chairman Manappuram Home Finance Pvt. Limited commented "Manappuram Home Finance focus is to provide best-in-class solutions to its customers in the affordable housing finance space. We chose Nucleus FinnOne Neo Cloud to give our customers instant access to a wide range of innovative products and services using channels of their choosing. Nucleus Software has a track record of
