The deal, once concluded, will value the company at around ₹2800 crore.

An email questionnaire to the spokespersons of Computershare and C Parthasarathy did not elicit any response till the time of going to press. In emailed responses both the spokespersons for General Atlantic and Blackstone said it will not comment on market speculations.

Founded in 1983 by CParthasarathy, Karvy Computershare is one of the largest share registrar servicing over 70 million investor accounts spread over 1300 issuers including banks, PSUs and mutual funds.

Karvy employs 4,000 people across 203 branches.

This will be the second time Karvy Group is looking to draw in PE investors a stake in one of its businesses ICICI Venture and Barings Asia had invested in Karvy Stock Broking some time back.

Karvy Computershare competes with CAMS, Link Intime, Big Shaup LP and General Atlantic are in re Services and Integrated Enterprises in the country. The National Stock Exchange purchased 45% in CAMS from global buyout fund Advent International in 2013.

Financial services has been a go to sector for private equity investors as the sector gives one a direct exposure to the country's growth and its consumption patterns. Despite slowdown in key heavy industries, financial services has been sustained by high home loan growth, credit card spends and consumer loans, "The financial business. ting for the winter schedule held in March, airlines had complained about capacity constraints at airports. A Delhi airport official had also said the airfield in the national capital is full during that period.

Delhi International Airport Ltd., the company that runs Delhi airport, declined to comment on the matter and directed queries to Air Navigation Services (ANS), a division of the Airports Authority of India that handles communication network surveillance and air traffic management. ANS officers told ET that Delhi airport is underutilised for various reasons. The government proposes to increase the capacity of Delhi airport to 95 flights per hour at peak time in the next three years from the current 67 movements per hour.
