SANGAM (INDIA) BAGS NEW ORDER OF DENIM & PV FABRICS WORTH Rs 31.22 crore

TOTAL ORDER BOOK STANDS AT Rs 240.63 CRORE

Bhilwara/Mumbai, May 15, 2017: Sangam (India) Limited, a leading integrated textile conglomerate in India, today announced that the company is witnessing an up surge in exports sales in the current financial year. It has bagged new orders amounting Rs 31.22 crore in the last 30 days for polyester-viscose fabrics and denim. The company has orders worth Rs 240.63 crore on hand, including export orders worth Rs 125.6 crore.

These new export orders are from Egypt, Saudi Arabia, Latin American and Afghanistan and are to be executed in the next four months. Contribution of denim exports to Sangam (India)'s exports all turnover in the last 18 months has increased from 5 per cent to 30 per cent.

Commenting on the development, Mr. R. P. Soni, Chairman, Sangam (India) said, "We have received an encouraging response to our denim and seamless products in the international market. What excites us is that this response is despite tough competition from other leading international players, as could offer better value proposition. We are hopeful of a much higher revenue contribution and better operating margin from exports going forward."

As on date, Sangam (India)'s pending order book position stands at Rs 240.63 crore. Of which Rs 125.60 crore pertain to exports. The company is targeting export revenue of Rs 450 crore in the current financial year.
