This has helped us to emerge as a preferred and strategic Platformation partner for our customers. We continue to invest on IP development and go-to-market initiatives with a stronger team as well as business development activities which has caused a slight dip in our profit after tax, the benefits of which is expected to yield in future.

We continue to focus on growth and investments despite difficult market conditions, as we believe that it is important to capture a strong position in the IT Solutions space by Digital transformation through Platformation.
